St. Mark's Mission Statement

St. Mark's is an open community, welcoming people wherever they are on their faith journey. We celebrate the gifts of God that empower us to engage boldly in the struggles of life and to care for others with love, justice, and compassion.

Hymnals are on the book carts by each entrance to the Nave.

Cell Phones – Please turn off your cell phone or other electronic devices at any time you are in the Nave.

VISITING OR NEW TO ST. MARK'S?

WE WELCOME YOU TO ST. MARK'S! Wherever you are on your faith journey, we invite you to celebrate life with us. Worship is in the round, and you are invited to sit anywhere in the Nave. Bulletin boards, rest-rooms and a water fountain are located in the hallway, and the Parish Hall is just beyond. If you have questions, please introduce yourself to the Vestry Greeter at the end of the service.

The Honduras Cross, above the central altar platform, symbolizes St. Mark's connection with the broader Anglican Communion and our obligations to our sisters and brothers around the world, particularly to the long connection to our friends in Honduras. Eileen Blumenthal and the 2000 Mission to Honduras designed the cross, and Eileen commissioned its construction in Honduras as a gift to St. Mark's community.

WORSHIP SERVICES AT ST. MARK'S IN JULY

On July 10 and 24, 10.00 am Eucharist followed by Sermon Seminar at 11.00am, during which all are encouraged to comment on how the sermon "spoke" personally.

On July 17, and 31, 10:00 am Eucharist and Sermon

5 pm Eucharist is a contemplative service with a homily and meditative music held every Sunday. An informal social hour follows the service where food and beverages are shared.

In the spirit of inclusion we offer both a "teleloop" system and infrared headsets for those who are hard of hearing. To access the signal, switch your own hearing aid to the "T" position. Headsets are available by the doors from the beadles (ushers).

CUSTOMS AND TRADITIONS

Open Communion is our invitation to everyone to gather around the altar for spiritual and communal nourishment. We believe this meal is a manifestation of God's love for each of us, regardless of our religion, beliefs or questions.

Announcements of church activities are often made by parishioners during the service. You can find more details in the Sunday Bulletin as well as on our website, www.stmarks.net To become more informed on the many parish life activities and events and be more engaged in our church community you may wish to join St. Mark's Yahoo Group. To subscribe, send a blank email to StMarks-subscribe@yahoogroups.com.

Childcare - St. Mark's Nursery provides care for children up to 3 1/2 yrs old during the Sunday morning worship services. Caregivers are available from 8:45 -12:45 pm in the Nursery (lower level).

(b. 1950)

Opening Hymn 440 Blessed Jesus, at thy word

Liebster Jesu

Opening Sentences

Presider Blessed be God: Creator, Sustainer and Redeemer.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray,

O Lord, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Psalm 65:9-14

Mode 7

Refrain

Let the val - leys shout for joy and sing.

from Gradual Psalms for the RCL, ed. Bruce E. Ford, Church Publishing Incorporated

You visit the earth and water it abundantly; you make it very plenteous;
the river of God is full of water. You prepare the grain, for so you provide for the earth.

Refrain

You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridges;
with heavy rain you soften the ground and bless its increase.
You crown the year with your goodness, and your paths overflow with plenty.

Refrain

May the fields of the wilderness be rich for grazing, and the hills be clothed with joy.
May the meadows cover themselves with flocks, and the valleys cloak themselves with grain; let them shout for joy and sing.

Refrain

Leader We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.
Leader Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People That our works may find favor in your sight.
Leader Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People That they may be delivered from their distress.
Leader Give to the departed eternal rest;
People Let light perpetual shine upon them.
Leader We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.
Leader We invite everyone to offer their own prayers, silently or if aloud, saying "God, in your mercy" to which all will respond "Hear our prayer."

A time is reserved for individual prayers.

Leader Let us pray.

All We offer our prayers in the faith that you, O God, love us, that Jesus our risen brother walks with us, and that the Holy Spirit strengthens us. And so we humbly follow you, finding new life in your love. Amen.

The Peace

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.
People And also with you.

Vestry Greeting

Rector's Greeting

The Liturgy of the Table

Offertory Anthem Come to the Water Text by John B. Foley, SJ, Music by Cary Ratcliff
Summer Choir

*O let all who thirst, let them come to the water.
And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord.
Let them come to the Lord without money, without price.
Why should you pay the price, except for the Lord?
And let all who seek, let them come to the water.
And let all who have nothing let them come to the Lord.
Let them come to the Lord, without money, without strife.
Why should you spend your life, except for the Lord?
And let all who toil, let them come to the water.
And let all who are weary, let them come to the Lord.
Let them come to the Lord, all who labor without rest.
How can your soul find rest, except for the Lord?
And let all the poor, let them come to the water.
Bring the ones who are laden, bring them all to the Lord.
Bring them all to the Lord, bring the children without might.
Easy the load and light. O come to the Lord.*

The people stand.

As thy prospering hand hath blessed, may we give thee of our best;
 And by deeds of kindly love for thy mercies grateful prove;
 Singing thus through all our days praise to God, immortal praise.

Eucharistic Prayer

Enriching our Worship - Eucharistic Prayer 1, adapted

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to God.

Presider Let us give thanks to our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider It is truly right, good, and joyful to give you thanks, holy God. By your love, you fill us and all creation with life. Through Jesus Christ, you redeem us. In your Spirit, you restore us to walk fully and faithfully in your life and love. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with every voice in heaven and on earth, to you we sing our praise:

Sanctus

Co-Presider Blessed are you, holy God, creator of all. You form us in your image and call us to dwell in your love. You give the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we fail to honor your image in the world around us and in ourselves. We violate your creation, abuse one another, and reject your love. Yet, in never ceasing to care for us, you prepare the way for our healing. Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you, delivering us from slavery, sustaining us in the wilderness, and raising up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent the Eternal Word, made flesh in Jesus, born into the human family. Dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death, he triumphed over evil, opening to us the way of freedom.

Presider On the night before he died, Jesus took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, saying: "Take, eat: This is my Body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

Co-Presider As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the New Covenant, poured out for you and for all. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Presider Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Presider Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you this bread and this wine we have made. By your Spirit may they be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, spiritual food and drink for us. And grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with your Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into everlasting heritage with all your daughters and sons, that with Mark and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

All AMEN!

Presider And now, as Jesus has taught us, we pray

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Invitation to Communion

Presider Here at St. Mark's, we observe an open Communion. All of us, whomever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe are invited to receive.

The Communion

Everyone is invited to God's Table. Gather, one group at a time, around the altar platform. Remain until everyone has received the bread and wine and has been dismissed by the Presider, saying, "Go in peace." You may consume the bread, then receive the wine by taking a sip from the chalice or goblet OR you may hold the bread, which will signal that you wish to intinct (dip it) into the chalice or the goblet. A non-alcoholic alternative to wine is offered in the plain goblet, and gluten-free crackers are available upon request.

Closing Hymn 505 O Spirit of Life

O heiliger Geist

The Blessing

Presider Let us commit together to live into a new life as children of God.

People May we, as God's children, find his love by humbly following Jesus and by loving and serving each other.

Presider May the blessing of God, the Creator, Sustainer and Redeemer be on each of us forever. Alleluia.

All Amen.

Co-Presider May we walk humbly to seek and show God's love. Alleluia. Alleluia.

The Hebrew Scripture Genesis 25:19-34

Read by Jessie Babcock

These are the descendants of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham was the father of Isaac, and Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah, daughter of Bethuel the Aramean of Paddan-aram, sister of Laban the Aramean. Isaac prayed to the LORD for his wife, because she was barren; and the LORD granted his prayer, and his wife Rebekah conceived. The children struggled together within her; and she said, "If it is to be this way, why do I live?" So she went to inquire of the LORD. And the LORD said to her, "Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples born of you shall be divided; the one shall be stronger than the other, the elder shall serve the younger." When her time to give birth was at hand, there were twins in her womb. The first came out red, all his body like a hairy mantle; so they named him Esau. Afterward his brother came out, with his hand gripping Esau's heel; so he was named Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them. When the boys grew up, Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field, while Jacob was a quiet man, living in tents. Isaac loved Esau, because he was fond of game; but Rebekah loved Jacob. Once when Jacob was cooking a stew, Esau came in from the field, and he was famished. Esau said to Jacob, "Let me eat some of that red stuff, for I am famished!" (Therefore he was called Edom.) Jacob said, "First sell me your birthright." Esau said, "I am about to die; of what use is a birthright to me?" Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob. Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank, and rose and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Announcements

Announcements should not exceed 125 words and should be submitted to Rebecca Richards by 5:00pm on Tuesday preceding the Sunday announcement is to run.

Capital Campaign Update

-- The Vision 2020 Steering Committee is pleased to report that last week we made our official submissions to the Commission on Fine Arts and the Historic Preservation Review Board for our proposed renovation and expansion of the Parish Hall. We must receive approval of our design from both bodies before we can move forward. Each will consider our proposal at their July meeting, and we are optimistic about receiving approval as soon as the end of the month.

-- Check the Vision 2020 section of the St. Mark's website (under the "Who We Are" tab) for an updated "frequently asked questions" document about the project.

1. SAVE THE DATE -- For those of you who plan ahead, mark your calendars now for Saturday evening, October 29th, when we will have an all-parish event at the church to kick off the capital campaign. More details soon!

Christian Ed

We welcome your participation and your interest in Christian Education classes offered at St. Mark's. Let us know where your interests lie in becoming more involved in the life of the parish!

2. SUNDAY SCHOOL CONTINUES TODAY July 10th and will run through July 31st from 10AM through the peace. Please see Megan's announcement under Youth & Families for more information.
3. INTRODUCTION TO ST. MARK'S - Dear All Who Are New to St. Mark's! I cordially invite you to come to the next session of the Introduction to Life at St. Mark's Class to be held TODAY, July 10th, 1.00-4.00 PM, in the Aams Room. The Intro Class, for which I happily will serve as your facilitator, offers an overview, a "thumbnail" sketch of St. Mark's communal life – our vision (who we are), our vocation (what we do), and our values (how we do what we do). Near the end of the class, parish leaders will join us to share a bit about opportunities for deeper engagement in our community life. (Also, we'll finish in time to attend the 5.00 PM service, if you so desire.) Please let me know of your plans to attend the Intro Class (paul.abernathy@stmarks.net or 202.543.0053 x301). -- Paul Roberts Abernathy, Rector

Christian Ed News:

4. SUNDAY SCHOOL NEEDS YOU! – Give yourself the reward (and challenge) of being young again by spending an hour on Sunday mornings (and some weekly planning time) to engage with our deeply thoughtful and interesting young people. Please consider this enriching experience in which the promise is that you will “get as much as you give”. Parents, in particular, might consider teaching children older than your own to get a sneak peak at “what comes next” – a tactic found to be very helpful by many. Contact any of your Christian Ed Co-Directors: Penny Farley, Bobbi Smith, Don Ellison, Rita Ossolinski, Will Long or Katherine Loevinger, for more information.
5. SUGGESTION FORMS FOR CHRISTIAN ED PROGRAM - We're looking for input into next year's Christian Ed offerings. Please take some time to fill out a suggestion form available online or in the 'track racks' by the doors and return it to the envelope on the bulletin board or to one of your Christian Ed Co-Directors: Penny Farley, Bobbi Smith, Don Ellison, Rita Ossolinski, Will Long or Katherine Loevinger. In an ideal world, everyone would either teach a class or take a class every year! We are encouraged by your participation.
6. JIM ADAMS' BOOK HERE TODAY! In honor of our former Rector's 77th birthday this week, we have ordered 77 copies of his magnum opus: "So You Think You're Not Religious?" (NEW Expanded 2nd Edition). I will be selling them at a special price of $14.00 each in the Parish Hall following the service. Let's bring some cheer to Jim! This new edition is a real treasure for everyone in your family or friends - for believers and especially for skeptics. Betsy Athey (athelloyd@comcast.net)
