The Honduras Cross, above the central altar platform, symbolizes St. Mark's connection with the broader Anglican Communion and our obligations to our sisters and brothers around the world, particularly with our sister congregations in the San Marcos Cluster in Honduras. Eileen Blumenthal and the 2000 Mission to Honduras designed the cross, and Eileen commissioned its construction in Honduras as a gift to St. Mark's community.

SUNDAY WORSHIP SCHEDULE

9:00 am Holy Eucharist (Family Eucharist is celebrated the second Sunday of most months)
9:00 am Children's Chapel (not offered when Family Eucharist is celebrated at 9:00 am)
10:00 am Sermon Seminar
11:15 am Holy Eucharist
5:00 pm Contemplative Eucharist

We formally begin the worship service with the Prelude, a musical offering designed to bring us together for worship that allows for quiet reflection before the service begins. Please respect this time by refraining from conversations in the Nave as much as possible. While greeting each other is important, we ask that you do so outside the Nave or near the doors so that others can have quiet time.

Collect

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

All O God, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The people sit.

The Epistle Paul's 2nd Letter to the Ephesians (1:3-14)

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.
People Thanks be to God!

Please stand as able.

Cantor *I will listen to what the Lord God is saying,

The Gospel Mark 6:14-29

Gospeller The Gospel of Jesus according to Mark.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

King Herod heard of Jesus and his disciples, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, "John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him." But others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised."

For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. For John had been telling Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it." And he solemnly swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom." She went out and said to her mother, "What should I ask for?" She replied, "The head of John the baptizer."

Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

Gospeller The Gospel of Jesus.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Immigrant's Apostles' Creed

All I believe in Almighty God, who guided the people in exile and in exodus,
 the God of Joseph in Egypt and Daniel in Babylon,
 the God of foreigners and immigrants.

I believe in Jesus Christ, a displaced Galilean, who was born away from his people and his home,
 who fled his country with his parents when his life was in danger.
When he returned to his own country he suffered under the oppression of Pontius Pilate, the servant of a foreign power. Jesus was persecuted, beaten, tortured, and unjustly condemned to death.
But on the third day Jesus rose from the dead,
 not as a scorned foreigner but to offer us citizenship in God's kingdom.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the eternal immigrant from God's kingdom among us,
 who speaks all languages, lives in all countries,
 and reunites all races.

I believe that the Church is the secure home for foreigners and for all believers.

I believe that the communion of saints begins
 when we embrace all God's people in all their diversity.

I believe in forgiveness, which makes us all equal before God,
 and in reconciliation, which heals our brokenness.

I believe that in the Resurrection
 God will unite us as one people in which all are distinct and all are alike at the same time.
I believe in life eternal, in which no one will be a foreigner but all will be citizens of the kingdom where God reigns forever and ever.

Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Intercessor Let us pray for the Church: that we may know God's presence and commit ourselves to living God's radical love in this world. God, in your mercy,
People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Let us pray for our nation and for all nations, that our leaders—especially Donald, Muriel, Ralph, and Larry—may be imbued with a spirit of compassion, justice and wisdom. God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Let us pray for our planet, its animals and plants, the whole ecosystem upon which our very lives depend. May we treat it with the respect and love which we owe to all creation. God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Let us pray for the whole Washington area, especially those who are hungry, homeless, or in other need. May we feel God’s call to care for our neighbors. God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Let us pray especially for those in trouble or danger, whether chronic or acute: especially those in medical care, in prison or jail, those serving with armed forces, and any we now name, either silently or aloud . . . [the congregation is invited to offer prayers at this time] . . . God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Let us give thanks for all the good in our lives, celebrating with each other our happiness, especially that good news we now share, whether silently or aloud . . . [the congregation is invited to offer prayers at this time] . . . God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor And let us pray for all who have died, celebrating the gift of their lives and remembering them before God, especially those we now name, either silently or aloud . . . [the congregation is invited to offer prayers at this time] . . . God, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

The Peace

Presider The peace of God be always with you.

People And also with you.

All, one with another, exchange a sign of peace.

Presentation Hymn For Each Perfect Gift

Dix

For each perfect gift of thine to the world so freely giv'n,
Faith and hope and love divine, peace on earth and joy in heav'n
Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise

Eucharistic Prayer

Presider God is always present.

People God is here, among us!

Presider Lift up your hearts

People We lift them up to the living God.

Presider Let us give thanks to our sovereign God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. You have filled us and all of creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Sanctus S129 (located in the front section of the Blue Hymnal)

Holy, holy, holy, Lord

Robert J. Powell

Presider Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Presider Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said:

“Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said:

“Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Presider Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with Mark and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Presider And now, as Jesus taught us, we pray:

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever.
Amen.

The Fraction

Presider Alleluia, Christ our Passover has sacrificed for us!

People Therefore let us keep the feast! Alleluia!

The Invitation to Communion

Presider We recognize this as God's table set before us and for all and this bread and wine as God's food for us and for all.

Therefore whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe,

All All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

The Communion

Please gather, one group at a time, around the altar.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available; please make your needs known to the minister

If you would like someone to pray with you about anything that is on your mind or heart, please go to the Chapel after receiving communion for laying on of hands.

The congregation is invited to sing the Refrain at the opening and then after each verse.

Christ, my hope, and Christ, my joy, Christ, my strength and my light, Christ, my con - fi - dence a-lone, in you I trust and have no fear; in you I trust and have no fear.

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major. The first staff contains the melody for the first line of lyrics, and the second staff contains the melody for the second line. A triplet of eighth notes is marked above the first three notes of the second staff.

Refrain:

Cantor—We have come to you God, to see you face to face; in your presence is fullest joy, in your life is surest hope.

Refrain

Cantor—Our faith is in you, our trust is in your Word; O God, we believe; come help our unbelief.

Refrain

Cantor—In you we find our strength, in you we find our light; O give us courage, God, to live our lives in you.

Refrain

Post Communion Prayer

Presider Together, let us pray.

All God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Closing Hymn 615 Thy Kingdom Come!

St. Flavian

The Blessing

Presider May God give you Grace never to sell yourself short. Grace to risk something big for something good. Grace to remember that the world is too dangerous for anything but truth and too small for anything but Love. The Blessing of a Gracious God, Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier be with us now and remain with us this day and always.

All Amen.

Dismissal

Deacon Let us go in peace to love and serve the Holy One!

Liturgy Request

At St. Mark's, we frequently change the liturgy (the language we use during our worship service). Our goal is to use language that reflects our common effort to put into words our relationship with God. In order to keep the liturgy truly alive and life giving, we need your input. Please feel free to contact the clergy at any time to discuss the liturgy and how the words we say affect you.
