The Honduras Cross, above the central altar platform, symbolizes St. Mark's connection with the broader Anglican Communion and our obligations to our sisters and brothers around the world, particularly with our sister congregations in the San Marcos Cluster in Honduras. Eileen Blumenthal and the 2000 Mission to Honduras designed the cross, and Eileen commissioned its construction in Honduras as a gift to St. Mark's community.

SUNDAY WORSHIP SCHEDULE

9:00 am Holy Eucharist (Family Eucharist is celebrated the second Sunday of most months)

9:00 am Children's Chapel (not offered when Family Eucharist is celebrated at 9:00 am)

10:00 am Sermon Seminar

11:15 am Holy Eucharist

5:00 pm Contemplative Eucharist

We formally begin the worship service with the Prelude, a musical offering designed to bring us together for worship that allows for quiet reflection before the service begins. Please respect this time by refraining from conversations in the Nave as much as possible. While greeting each other is important, we ask that you do so outside the Nave or near the doors so that others can have quiet time.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Prelude Lied Louis Vierne
(1870-1937)

Opening Hymn 305 Come, Risen Lord Rosedale

Opening Sentences

Presider Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People Glory to God forever and ever. Amen.

(9:00) Children wishing to participate in Children's Chapel may follow the Crucifer to the Dance Studio (second floor) at this time.

Gloria in excelsis S280 Glory to God Robert J. Powell
(located in the front section of the Hymnal)

Collect

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

All God of Moses who rained down bread on Israel's wandering people: lead us to the food that never leaves us craving, addicted to consuming, but fills our whole humanity with life enough for all; through Jesus Christ, the bread of heaven. Amen.

The people sit.

The Epistle Paul's Letter to the Ephesians (4:1-16)

I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all. But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift. Therefore it is said,

"When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive;
he gave gifts to his people."

(When it says, "He ascended," what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower parts of the earth? He who descended is the same one who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things.) The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up

Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

Gospeller The Gospel of Jesus.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

(11:15) Sermon

Rev. Becky Zartman

Please stand as able.

The Immigrant's Apostles' Creed

All I believe in Almighty God, who guided the people in exile and in exodus, the God of Joseph in Egypt and Daniel in Babylon, the God of foreigners and immigrants.

I believe in Jesus Christ, a displaced Galilean, who was born away from his people and his home, who fled his country with his parents when his life was in danger.

When he returned to his own country he suffered under the oppression of Pontius Pilate, the servant of a foreign power. Jesus was persecuted, beaten, tortured, and unjustly condemned to death.

But on the third day Jesus rose from the dead, not as a scorned foreigner but to offer us citizenship in God's kingdom.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the eternal immigrant from God's kingdom among us, who speaks all languages, lives in all countries, and reunites all races.

I believe that the Church is the secure home for foreigners and for all believers.

I believe that the communion of saints begins when we embrace all God's people in all their diversity.

I believe in forgiveness, which makes us all equal before God, and in reconciliation, which heals our brokenness.

I believe that in the Resurrection, God will unite us as one people in which all are distinct and all are alike at the same time.

I believe in life eternal, in which no one will be a foreigner but all will be citizens of the kingdom where God reigns forever and ever. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

- Leader Let us pray for the Church: that we may know God's presence and commit ourselves to living God's radical love in this world. God, in your mercy,
- People Hear our prayer.
- Leader Let us pray for our nation and for all nations, that our leaders—especially Donald, Muriel, Ralph, and Larry—may be imbued with a spirit of compassion, justice and wisdom. God, in your mercy,
- People Hear our prayer.
- Leader Let us pray for our planet, its animals and plants, the whole ecosystem upon which our very lives depend. May we treat it with the respect and love which we owe to all creation. God, in your mercy,
- People Hear our prayer.
- Leader Let us pray for the whole Washington area, especially those who are hungry, homeless, or in other need. May we feel God's call to care for our neighbors. God, in your mercy,
- People Hear our prayer.
- Leader Let us pray especially for those in trouble or danger, whether chronic or acute: especially those in medical care, in prison or jail, those serving with armed forces, and any we now name, either silently or aloud . . . [the congregation is invited to offer prayers at this time] . . . God, in your mercy,
- People Hear our prayer.
- Leader Let us give thanks for all the good in our lives, celebrating with each other our happiness, especially that good news we now share, whether silently or aloud . . . [the congregation is invited to offer prayers at this time] . . . God, in your mercy,
- People Hear our prayer.
- Leader And let us pray for all who have died, celebrating the gift of their lives and remembering them before God, especially those we now name, either silently or aloud . . . [the congregation is invited to offer prayers at this time] . . . God, in your mercy,
- People Hear our prayer.
- Leader Let us pray together:
- People We offer our prayers in the faith that you, O God, love us, that Jesus our risen brother walks with us, and that the Holy Spirit strengthens us. Amen.

Farewell to Interim Music Director, Jason West

We invite Jason to share a brief message with us about his time here and his upcoming plans. Once he has finished, we will say goodbye to him with the language below.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

Offertory

Let Us Break Bread Together

Arr. Richard Walter

*Let us break bread together on our knees;
When I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun, O Lord, have mercy on me.
Let us drink wine together on our knees;
Let us praise God together on our knees.*

Diane Atherton, Soprano

Presentation Hymn

For Each Perfect Gift

Dix

For each perfect gift of thine to the world so freely giv'n,
Faith and hope and love divine, peace on earth and joy in heav'n
Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise

Eucharistic Prayer

Presider God is always present.

People God is here, among us!

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up to the living God.

Presider Let us give thanks to our sovereign God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. You have filled us and all of creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generations, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Sanctus S129

Holy, holy, holy, Lord

Robert J. Powell

(located in the front section of the Hymnal)

Presider Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

Presider But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said:

“Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said:

“Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Presider Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with Mark and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Presider And now, as Jesus taught us, we pray:

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Presider Alleluia, Christ our Passover has sacrificed for us!

People Therefore let us keep the feast! Alleluia!

The Invitation to Communion

Presider We recognize this as God's table set before us and for all and this bread and wine as God's food for us and for all. Therefore whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe,

All All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

The Communion

Please gather, one group at a time, around the altar.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available; please make your needs known to the minister.

If you would like someone to pray with you about anything that is on your mind or heart, please go to the Chapel after receiving communion for laying on of hands.

Music During Communion

Arr. William Bradley Roberts

The congregation is invited to sing the Refrain at the beginning and then after each verse

Refrain:

Christ, my hope, and Christ, my joy, — Christ, my strength and my light, Christ, my con - fi - dence a - lone, in you I trust and have no fear; in you I trust and have no fear.

Cantor—We have come to you God, to see you face to face; in your presence is fullest joy, in your life is surest hope.

Refrain

Cantor—Our faith is in you, our trust is in your Word; O God, we believe; come help our unbelief.

Refrain

Cantor—In you we find our strength, in you we find our light; O give us courage, God, to live our lives in you.

Refrain

Post Communion Prayer

Presider Together, let us pray.

All God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Closing Hymn 552

Glorious Things of Thee are Spoken

Austria

The Blessing

Presider May God give you Grace never to sell yourself short. Grace to risk something big for something good. Grace to remember that the world is too dangerous for anything but truth and too small for anything but Love. The Blessing of a Gracious God, Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier be with us now and remain with us this day and always.

All Amen!

Dismissal

Deacon Let us go in peace to love and serve the Holy One!

People Thanks be to God.

Sermon Seminar at 10:00 am

Announcements

Please limit announcements to one minute or less.

The Sermon

Rev. Becky Zartman

Sermon Seminar Guidelines:

1. Is what I have to say relevant to the sermon?
2. Is it meaningful? Will others care?
3. Can I make it short?
4. Will I later regret not having said it?
5. Has anyone else said it?

Liturgy Request

At St. Mark's, we frequently change the liturgy (the language we use during our worship service). Our goal is to use language that reflects our common effort to put into words our relationship with God. In order to keep the liturgy truly alive and life giving, we need your input. Please feel free to contact the clergy at any time to discuss the liturgy and how the words we say affect you.

Our guest singer this morning is British Soprano, Diane Atherton. Diane as sung in every major concert hall in the British Isles and toured extensively throughout Europe & North America, recorded for television and radio as well as for major record labels. While she is most recognized as a singer, Diane is increasingly becoming well-known as a teacher and director. She was a member of the adjunct faculty at American University 2012-2015 and is currently on faculty at The Children's Chorus of Washington and teaches 6 choirs in local schools in the Washington DC area. Many of her students have continued to study voice at Yale, Indiana and Oberlin Universities. We are fortunate to have Diane teaching voice lessons in the St Mark's studio. She currently teaches two members of the choir and has openings for more students who want to learn how to sing better. For further information, speak to her after the service or visit her website www.dianeatherton.com
