THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

OPENING SENTENCES

From near and far, people are seeking God's love.
Jesus the child manifests that love here today.

COLLECT

God be with you.
And also with you.

Let us pray:

Mysterious God: open to us the moments when heaven overshadows time and silences our empty words; in this moment of silence help us to hear the Chosen One, who goes to die that we might live: Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

A period of silence is observed.

THE EPISTLE 2 Corinthians 3:12-4:2

Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.
Thanks be to God.

The people stand as able.

THE GOSPEL Luke 9:28-36

The Gospel of Jesus according to Luke.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"--not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!" When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

The Gospel of Jesus.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

MUSIC FOR MEDITATION

The people stand as able.

AFFIRMATION

I believe in the Source Eternal, the creator of the universe, who spoke, "Let there be light!" and there was light, setting in motion all of creation and blessing it to this day.

I believe in Jesus Christ, the Light that shines in the darkness; the darkness cannot overcome him. He manifests God in our midst, suffered under sin on the Cross, and lives as God's saving grace.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the guiding light of God in our world, who conquers the darkness of human sin, helps people grow and become the images of God we are meant to be.

I believe in the power of transformation, here in this world and in the world to come.
Amen.

A period of silence is observed.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us turn to the God incarnate.

A brief silence.

We praise the light that you, our Creator, shine to give us hope in dark times. We ask that we may enlighten ourselves and all we meet to the power of your love. Incarnate God,
Manifest your hope in us.

We praise you, Jesus, for your self-sacrifice. We ask that you empower your church, its leaders, and its people to risk themselves in service to our neighbors. Incarnate God,
Manifest your love through us.

We praise You, Holy Spirit, for your sanctifying presence that calls us to loving action, as well as your healing love in our lives. We ask for wisdom, courage, and strength to care for each other. Incarnate God,
Manifest your peace amongst us.

We praise you, O God of all people, for your command that we care for your creation and work to build your Kingdom on earth. We ask that you inspire our governmental leaders to work for a compassionate, just, and loving world. Incarnate God,
Manifest your justice through us.

We praise you, Holy Trinity, for the message of renewal and reconciliation that is the Gospel of Jesus, the Anointed. We ask for the courage to proclaim this message with boldness and patience. Incarnate God,
Manifest your message with our voices.

We praise you, God, for the lives of all people, especially for those we have lost. We ask you to manifest your comforting presence to all who mourn, and that, in the end, you shall gather all into your loving embrace. Incarnate God,
Manifest your mercy for us.

Let us now offer prayers for those joys, worries, or sorrows that fill our hearts today:

The people are invited to offer prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings, either silently or aloud, at this time.

Together, let us pray:

Almighty Source, inspire our faith. Jesus, our brother, lead us in your way of compassion and justice. Holy Spirit, light our way, so that we may manifest your love and truth in each day of our lives. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

God is always with us.

The Spirit is moving among us!

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Incarnate One.

Let us give thanks to God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Worship and praise belong to you, Creator, in every place and at all times. All power is yours. You are without beginning and without end. You called into being all that is; you created the heavens and established the earth, giving life to all.

Through your Son Jesus Christ our life and yours are brought together in a wonderful exchange: divinity is bound to human nature and humanity taken up to God.

Through your Holy Spirit, you call all humankind to new birth in a creation restored by love. As children of your redeeming purpose we offer you our praise.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels and with the whole company of heaven, we proclaim the hymn of your unending glory:

Holy, holy, holy Lord; God of power and might! Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest!

Glory and thanksgiving be to you, most loving Creator, for the gift of your Son born in human flesh. He is the Word existing beyond time, both source and final purpose, bringing to wholeness all that is made and manifesting your love for us. We thank you that through him you have freed us from our sin: that though he died upon the cross, he has risen again for us.

We give you thanks, because in taking our nature upon him, he manifested the radiance of your glory, and brought us out of darkness into his marvelous light.

On the night before he died, he took bread and gave you thanks. He broke the bread, gave it to his disciples and said:

“Take, eat. This is my Body: it is broken for you.”

After supper, he took the cup; he offered you thanks, he gave it to them and said:

“Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new covenant: it is poured out for you and for all people, that sins may be forgiven. Do this in remembrance of me.”

And so now:

We recall his blessed passion and death, his glorious resurrection and ascension, and we look for the coming of his kingdom. United with him, we offer you these gifts and ourselves with them; one, holy, and living sacrifice.

Hear us, most merciful Creator, and send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this bread and this wine, that, manifesting Jesus’s life-giving power, they may be the Body and Blood of your Son, and we may be kindled with the fire of your love and renewed for the service of your kingdom.

Help us who are bound into the fellowship of your whole Church to live and work to your praise and glory:

May we grow together in unity and love until at last in a renewed creation we share the life of the Saints, in the company of all Apostles and Prophets, and of all our siblings living and departed.

Accept our offering through Jesus Christ our Lord, through whom, with whom and in whom, all honor and glory be to you, God of all Ages, world without end.

AMEN!

During the season of Epiphany, we will be using the traditional version of the Lord’s Prayer.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

And now, as Jesus taught us, let us pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION

Alleluia, alleluia: Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
Therefore let us keep the feast; alleluia, alleluia!

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

We recognize this as God's table set before us and for all and this bread and wine as God's food for us and for all. Therefore whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe,

All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

THE COMMUNION

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available; please make your needs known to the minister.

If you would like someone to pray with you about anything that is on your mind or heart, please go to the Chapel after receiving communion for laying on of hands.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

The light shines in the darkness—

—and the darkness has not overcome it. Creator, we thank you for feeding us with the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Grant that the brightness of his presence may shine in our hearts, and his glory manifest in our lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE BLESSING

The peace of God which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God who is manifest as Jesus Christ: And the blessing of God Almighty, the Source, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

DISMISSAL

Alleluia, alleluia: Go in peace to love and serve God!
In the name of Christ: alleluia, alleluia!

Please join us for light refreshments after the service.

Liturgy Request

At St. Mark's, we frequently change the liturgy (the language we use during our worship service). Our goal is to use language that reflects our common effort to put into words our relationship with God. In order to keep the liturgy truly alive and life giving, we need your input. Please feel free to contact the clergy at any time to discuss the liturgy and how the words we say affect you.
