THE BUTTERFLY CROSS was created by the children of the Parish for Easter Season 2017. It is a representation of our donation of living plants to help pollinators have a more livable habitat.

SUNDAY WORSHIP SCHEDULE

- 9:00 am Holy Eucharist (Family Eucharist is celebrated the second Sunday of most months)
- 9:00 am Children's Chapel (not offered when Family Eucharist is celebrated at 9:00 am)
- 10:00 am Sermon Seminar
- 11:15 am Holy Eucharist
- 5:00 pm Contemplative Eucharist

We formally begin the worship service with the Prelude, a musical offering designed to bring us together for worship that allows for quiet reflection before the service begins. Please respect this time by refraining from conversations in the Nave as much as possible. While greeting each other is important, we ask that you do so outside the Nave or near the doors so that others can have quiet time.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

From July 28 through September 1, our liturgy will call us to Listen for the Spirit, emphasizing times of silence to help us hear the still, small voice of God in our lives.

PRELUDE “Jesu, Joy of Man’s Desiring”

J.S. Bach

OPENING HYMN LEVAS 112 Come, Holy Ghost

Lambillotte

OPENING SENTENCES & COLLECTING QUIET

God is here, among us.

The Spirit is stirring in our midst.

In the sound of sheer silence, God speaks.

Let us stop and listen for the still, small voice.

All are invited to a time of silence for quiet contemplation and centering.

In the silence, oh God, we seek You.

Amen.

(9:00) Those wishing to go to children’s chapel may follow the leader upstairs at this time.

THE FIRST READING Hebrews 11:1-3, 8-16

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old-- and Sarah herself was barren-- because he considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, "as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore."

All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland.

If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.
Thanks be to God.

The people stand as able.

THE GOSPEL Luke 12:32-40

The Gospel of Jesus according to Luke.

Jesus said to his disciples, "Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

"Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

"But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour."

The Gospel of Jesus.

(11:15) THE SERMON

The Reverend Michele Morgan

The sermon for the 9 o'clock service is delivered after the service during the 10:00 AM sermon seminar.

THE AFFIRMATION

Knowing our world is a gift, we hear an echo of the One who gives us life.
Witnessing the life, ministry, and teachings of Jesus, we hear the call to radical love.
Feeling the movement of the Spirit, we hear a voice quiet—yet speaking with power.
We believe that God creates us, loves us, and calls us to renewed life.
Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

God, give us the grace to hear your Holy Spirit.

Hear us, Holy Spirit, as we pray for our families, friends, and neighbors.

We hear your call to care for one another.

Hear us, Holy Spirit, as we pray for all ministers, teachers, first responders, volunteers, and others who guide and care for us.

We hear your call to serve.

Hear us, Holy Spirit, as we pray for the president, governors, mayors, the Congress, general assemblies, city councils, judges, and all others to whom we have given governing responsibility.

We hear your call to justice.

Hear us, Holy Spirit, as we pray for those who are sick, who are lonely, who are scared, who are oppressed, or who are in any other kind of trouble.

Let others hear your comforting voice through us.

Hear us, Holy Spirit, as we pray for those who have died and for their families and friends.

We hear your call to reunion with you.

Hear us, Holy Spirit, as we pray for ourselves: for peace, for clarity, for courage, and, most of all, for the power to love.

We hear your voice calling us to new life.

Each week we will pray for various facilities in the US where migrants may be detained:

Oh God, you have always been with the traveler, the migrant, and the refugee. Today, we pray for any detainees, and the guards and other staff, at:

Geauga County Safety Center in the state of Ohio; David L. Moss Criminal Justice Center, Grady County Law Enforcement Center, and Kay County Detention Center in the state of Oklahoma; Federal Detention Center Sheridan in the state of Oregon.

Give those incarcerated courage and hope; give those who work in these places compassion and honor; and help us all to build a better world.

Amen.

Hear us, Holy Spirit, as we offer our personal prayers, silently or, if aloud, ending in “This is my prayer,” to which all will respond “Amen.”

Members of the congregation may offer their own prayers at this time.

Let us pray together:

Holy Spirit, help us to quiet ourselves, so that we may hear your voice, welcome you into our lives, and speak as prophets acting with power. Amen.

THE CONFESSION

God, you call us to act with love, mercy, understanding, and patience. And yet, too often, we ignore your voice to serve our own interests, without considering the cost to those around us—and, indeed, to ourselves.

Hear us now as we admit our failures and wrongdoings in the silence of your presence.

All are invited to silently reflect on where we have fallen short in the past week.

God forgives us as we forgive. Go in peace, knowing that God’s love is held back by no boundaries, and hear the call of that still, small voice urging us to new life.

Amen.

THE PEACE

May the peace of the Holy One be always with you!

And also with you.

All, one with another, exchange a sign of peace.

OFFERTORY SOLO

With verdure clad the fields appear, from The Creation

Franz Joseph Haydn

Marjorie Coombs Wellman, soloist

*And God said, "Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed,
And the fruit-tree yielding fruit after his kind, who seed is in itself
Upon the earth." And it was so.*

*With verdure clad the fields appear delightful to the ravish'd sense;
By flowers sweet and gay enhanced is the charming sight.*

Here fragrant herbs their odors shed, here shoots the healing plant.

*With copious fruit the expanded boughs are hung;
In leafy arches twine the shady groves; o'er lofty hills majestic forests wave.*

PRESENTATION HYMN 605 What does the Lord require

Sharpthorne

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Spirit be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them into the silence of God's presence.

Let us give thanks to God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind.

Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing. All you create is a sign of hope for our journey; and so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

SANCTUS S 130

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all. Your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a loving offering.

Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends, and said:

“Take, eat: This is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ’s coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Dying, you destroyed our death. Rising, you restored our life. Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Send your Holy Spirit upon us, and upon these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, hearing your Spirit’s voice, may be a people of hope, justice, and love.

Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home. Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise:

Blessed are you, now and forever. Amen.

We will pray with the traditional translation of the Lord’s Prayer:

THE LORD’S PRAYER

And now, as Jesus taught us, let us pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Oh Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world:

Have mercy on us.

Oh Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world:

Have mercy on us.

Oh Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world:

Grant us your peace.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

We recognize this as God's table set before us and for all and this bread and wine as God's food for us and for all. Therefore whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe,

All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

THE COMMUNION

Please gather, one group at a time, around the altar.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available; please make your needs known to the minister.

15TH ANNUAL PARISH COOK-OUT
SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 2019
After the 10 AM service with the added excitement of

Sunday School Registration, Ministry Fair, and Children's Carnival

The Parish will provide:

Burgers, dogs, veggie burgers, buns, condiments, plates, cutlery, ice, iced tea, lemonade, and ice cream.

We ask that you provide the side dishes, as follows:

Last Name...	Bring...
A-B	Cole Slaw for 6-8
C-D	2 doz cookies or brownies (mark if w/nuts)
E-G	6-pack beer
H-L	2-6pk or 1-liter soda
M	Potato salad or coleslaw for 6-8
N-R	Pasta or bean like salad for 6-8
S-T	A plate of sliced onions
U-Z	A plate of sliced tomatoes

If you bring a plate that you want back, please mark it, and grab when done; we really want you and your container to be reunited at the end of the day's events.

We have serving pieces, (like a lot) so do not bring yours. Come to think of it, maybe that is why we have so many.

We can't heat anything up, so everything you bring should be cold.

There are a ton of us, so bring lots of food!

Your mission is to get the food to us by 9:30.

Thanks, it will be fun!!

(5 PM will have a cook-out, too - more info to come)
