THE HONDURAN CROSS symbolizes St. Mark's connection with the broader Anglican Communion and our obligations to our sisters and brothers around the world. Eileen Blumenthal and the 2000 Mission to Honduras designed the cross, and Eileen commissioned its construction in Honduras as a gift to St. Mark's community. created by the children of the Parish for Easter Season 2017. It is a representation of our donation of living plants to help pollinators have a more livable habitat.

SUNDAY WORSHIP SCHEDULE

9:00 am Holy Eucharist (Family Eucharist is celebrated the second Sunday of most months)

9:00 am Children's Chapel (not offered when Family Eucharist is celebrated at 9:00 am)

10:00 am Sermon Seminar

11:15 am Holy Eucharist

5:00 pm Contemplative Eucharist

We formally begin the worship service with the Prelude, a musical offering designed to bring us together for worship that allows for quiet reflection before the service begins. Please respect this time by refraining from conversations in the Nave as much as possible. While greeting each other is important, we ask that you do so outside the Nave or near the doors so that others can have quiet time.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

From September 8 through October 13, our liturgy will call us to Welcome the Spirit, emphasizing times of silence to help us hear the still, small voice of God in our lives.

PRELUDE Berceuse

Louis Vierne
(1870-1937)

OPENING HYMN 390 Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

Lobe den Herren

OPENING SENTENCES

The Spirit is calling.

Let us answer the invitation!

Gathering together, we seek God in each other.

Amen.

SONG OF PRAISE Sing and rejoice

Traditional round

All sing once unison, then twice more as a round.

Sing and re - joice. Sing and re - joice.

Let all things liv - ing now sing and re - joice.

THE COLLECT

Let us pray:

Oh God, through Jesus you teach us that we welcome the divine when we welcome each other. Inspire us, Holy Spirit, to see your reflection in our neighbors' eyes. Give us the strength and courage to build your holy reign together. Amen.

(9:00) Those wishing to go to children's chapel may follow the leader upstairs at this time.

THE FIRST READING Jeremiah 8:18-9:1

My joy is gone, grief is upon me, my heart is sick.

Hark, the cry of my poor people from far and wide in the land:

"Is the Lord not in Zion? Is her King not in her?"

("Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their foreign idols?")

"The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved."

For the hurt of my poor people I am hurt, I mourn, and dismay has taken hold of me.

Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there?

Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored?

O that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my poor people!

Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.

Thanks be to God.

The people stand as able.

THE GOSPEL Luke 16:1-13

The Gospel of Jesus according to Luke.

Glo-ry to you, Lord Christ. —

Jesus said to the disciples, "There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.' Then the manager said to himself, 'What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.' So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' He answered, 'A hundred jugs of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.' Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?' He replied, 'A hundred containers of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill and make it eighty.'

And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

"Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."

The Gospel of Jesus.

(11:15) THE SERMON

The Reverend Michele H. Morgan

The sermon for the 9:00 AM service is delivered after the service during the 10:00 AM sermon seminar.

Shall We Gather at the River, v. 1

Robert Lowry

All sing.

Shall we gather at the river, where bright angel feet have trod;
With its crystal tide forever flowing by the throne of God?
Yes, we'll gather at the river, the beautiful, the beautiful river;
Gather with the saints at the river that flows by the throne of God.

(9:00) THE BAPTISMS Please see the laminated Holy Baptism sheet.

(11:15) THE AFFIRMATION

We believe that God has always been walking with us:

In the beginning, Holy Spirit, you welcomed the Cosmos into the life of God; churning up the waters of life, you brought us forth.

In days long past, Holy One, Abraham and Sarah welcomed you in the form of three strangers. Giving from what you had given them, they found true sustenance.

In dark and dangerous times, Word of God, you came into the world and found no welcome. Finding a world of strangers, you welcomed us to be family.

Together we welcome God: Creator, Sustainer, and Friend. Amen.

(11:15) PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us welcome the Spirit of God into our lives:

Let us pray for our families and friends. Holy Spirit—

Welcome us as we welcome You.

Let us pray for all teachers, ministers, and other leaders in our communities. Holy Spirit—

Welcome us as we welcome You.

Let us pray for the governments of all nations, that we may build a peaceful and just world for all. Holy Spirit—

Welcome us as we welcome You.

Let us pray for all who are sick, imprisoned, anxious, or alone. Holy Spirit—

Welcome us as we welcome You.

Let us pray for this parish, and all volunteers and leaders as we begin a new year of classes, discussions, and other chances to journey together. Holy Spirit—

Welcome us as we welcome You.

Let us pray for all who have died, that they may find peace in their Source and Sustainer. Holy Spirit—

Welcome us as we welcome You.

Each week we will pray for various facilities in the US where migrants may be detained:

Oh God, you have always been with the traveler, the migrant, and the refugee. Today, we pray for any detainees, and the guards and other staff, at:

Amarillo Sub-Station, San Angelo Station, Del Rio Station, Port Isabel Service Processing Center & Rolling Plains Correctional Facility in the state of Texas

Give those incarcerated courage and hope; give those who work in these places compassion and honor; and help us all to build a better world.

Amen.

Members of the congregation may offer their own prayers at this time.

Let us pray together:

God, you give to us and ask nothing in return. Help us to welcome you into our lives by welcoming each other with compassion and honesty. As we build our community, may we build your holy reign. Amen.

The people sit.

THE PEACE

May the peace of God be always with you!

And also with you.

All, one with another, exchange a sign of peace.

PRESENTATION HYMN 605 What does the Lord require

Sharphorne

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Our God be with you.

And also with you

Let us welcome God into our hearts.

We welcome the living God.

Let us give thanks to our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because in Jesus you have received us as your sons and daughters, made us citizens of your kingdom, and given us the Holy Spirit to guide us into all truth. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

Festival Eucharist, Craig Phillips

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Holy and gracious Mother: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Source of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Holy Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Mother, now and for ever.

Amen!

THE LORD'S PRAYER

From Sep. 8 through Oct. 13, we will pray with the contemporary translation of the Lord's Prayer:

And now, as Jesus taught us, let us pray:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name.

Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION

Festival Eucharist, Craig Phillips

The Choir sings the verse "Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us" after which all repeat the refrain.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

We recognize this as God's table set before us and for all and this bread and wine as God's food for us and for all. Therefore whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe,

All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

THE COMMUNION

Please gather, one group at a time, around the altar.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available; please make your needs known to the minister.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

Hymn 701 Jesus, all my gladness

Jesu, meine Freude

Hymn 488 Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart

Slane

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Together, let us pray.

God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN 550 Jesus calls us; o'er the tumult

Restoration

THE BLESSING

“Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it.” May it be so! And the blessing of God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be upon you, this day and always.

Amen.

DISMISSAL

Alleluia, Alleluia! Let us welcome the Spirit into our lives!

Thanks be to God; Alleluia, Alleluia!
