THE HONDURAN CROSS symbolizes St. Mark's connection with the broader Anglican Communion and our obligations to our sisters and brothers around the world. Eileen Blumenthal and the 2000 Mission to Honduras designed the cross, and Eileen commissioned its construction in Honduras as a gift to St. Mark's community. created by the children of the Parish for Easter Season 2017. It is a representation of our donation of living plants to help pollinators have a more livable habitat.

SUNDAY WORSHIP SCHEDULE

9:00 am Holy Eucharist (Family Eucharist is celebrated the second Sunday of most months)

9:00 am Children's Chapel (not offered when Family Eucharist is celebrated at 9:00 am)

10:00 am Sermon Seminar

11:15 am Holy Eucharist

5:00 pm Contemplative Eucharist

We formally begin the worship service with the Prelude, a musical offering designed to bring us together for worship that allows for quiet reflection before the service begins. Please respect this time by refraining from conversations in the Nave as much as possible. While greeting each other is important, we ask that you do so outside the Nave or near the doors so that others can have quiet time.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

From October 20 through November 24, our liturgy will call us to Embody the Spirit, emphasizing times of silence to help us hear the still, small voice of God in our lives.

OPENING SENTENCES

Blessed be God: Speaker, Spoken, and Spirit.
Let us embody the Spirit's power and love.
Not in words alone—
But in loving action.
Amen.

A period of silence is observed.

THE COLLECT

Let us pray:
God of the dispossessed, you teach us to hunger for justice even when the weak are shut out and the powerful keep dishonest counsel: in the heat of our anger and the bitterness of our complaints, give us the courage to protest, the persistence to pray and the heart to love, through Jesus Christ, the honest judge. Amen.

THE FIRST READING 2 Timothy 4:6-8,16-18

I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.
Thanks be to God.

The people stand as able.

THE GOSPEL Luke 18: 9-14

The Gospel of Jesus according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.’ But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’ I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.”

The Gospel of Jesus.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The people sit.

MUSIC FOR MEDITATION

THE AFFIRMATION

We believe in God above us, maker and sustainer of all life, of sun and moon, of water and earth, of plants and animals.

We believe in God beside us, Jesus Christ, the word made flesh, born of a woman, servant of the poor, tortured and nailed to a tree. A man of sorrows, he died forsaken. He descended into the earth to the place of death. On the third day he rose from the tomb. He ascended into heaven, to be everywhere present, and His kingdom will come on earth.

We believe in God within us, the Holy Spirit of Pentecostal fire, life-giving breath of the Church, Spirit of healing and forgiveness, source of resurrection and of eternal life. Amen.

A period of silence is observed.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us now speak what the Spirit is telling us, and pray for our world, each other, and ourselves.

A brief silence is observed as we center our attention on God's presence.

We pray for our families, friends, and neighbors.

Holy Spirit, bind us to one another.

We pray for all ministers, teachers, volunteers, first responders, and others who guide and care for us.

Holy Spirit, teach us to love.

We pray for our leaders: the president, the Congress, governors, mayors, members of city councils, attorneys general, and all others to whom we have given governing responsibility.

Holy Spirit, call us to justice.

We pray for those who are sick, who are lonely, who are scared, or who are in any trouble.

Holy Spirit, comfort and heal our brokenness.

We pray for those who have died and for their families.

Holy Spirit, gather us into your embrace.

We pray for ourselves: for peace, for clarity, for courage, and most of all, for the power to truly love.

Holy Spirit, have mercy upon us.

I invite your prayers at this time, either silently or aloud.

Each week we will pray for various facilities in the US where migrants may be detained:

Oh God, you have always been with the traveler, the migrant, and the refugee. Today, we pray for any detainees, and the guards and other staff, at:

Clint Station, Laredo South Station, Dallas Station, Val Verde County Detention Center, Willacy County Regional Detention Facility in the state of Texas

Give those incarcerated courage and hope; give those who work in these places compassion and honor; and help us all to build a better world.

Amen.

Members of the congregation may offer their own prayers at this time.

Let us pray together:

Holy Spirit, in you we move and live and have our being. When we perceive your presence, we perceive our own deepest truth. Strengthen and inspire us to live your love, beauty, and justice into this broken but beloved world.

Amen.

THE PEACE

May the peace of God be always with you!

And also with you.

All, one with another, exchange a sign of peace.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

Our God be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Spirit.

Let us give thanks to the Holy One.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation.

But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his love, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might: heaven and earth are full of your glory! Hosanna in the highest! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest!

And so, God, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord. On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said,

"Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said:

"Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Ancestors: Sarah, Rachel, Rebecca, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God present as our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation.

Amen!

THE LORD'S PRAYER

From Oct. 20 through Nov. 24, we will pray with the traditional translation of the Lord's Prayer:

And now, as Jesus taught us, we are bold to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who have trespassed against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever and ever.

Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Alleluia, Christ our Passover has sacrificed for us!

Therefore let us keep the feast! Alleluia!

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

We recognize this as God's table set before us and for all and this bread and wine as God's food for us and for all. Therefore whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe,

All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

THE COMMUNION

Please gather, one group at a time, around the altar.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available; please make your needs known to the minister.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Together, let us pray.

Jesus Christ, we have met you in a meal shared together; now, Holy Spirit, fill our hearts and minds with the fire of your truth, love, and justice, that we might go where you send us, working to heal the world you love without limit. Amen.

THE BLESSING

The Spirit is calling! May we hear, and may we act. And so that we are strong for this work: the blessing of God: Speaker, Spoken, and Spirit, be upon you this day and always.

Amen.

ENDING OF A PASTORAL RELATIONSHIP

(Scott) On the 9th day of April, 2018, I began serving as Assistant Rector of St. Mark's. I have, with God's help and to the best of my abilities, exercised this trust, accepting its privileges and responsibilities.

After prayer and careful consideration, it now seems to me that I should leave this charge, and I publicly state that my tenure as Assistant Rector of St. Mark's ends this day.

(Michele) Do you, the people of St. Mark's, recognize and accept the conclusion of this pastoral relationship?

We do.

Scott will briefly address the congregation.

(Michele) Let us pray:

O God, you have bound us together for a time as priest and people to work for the advancement of your Holy Reign in this place: we give you humble and hearty thanks for the ministry we have shared in these years now past.

We thank you for your mercy and forgiveness; when we have failed each other, give us likewise merciful and forgiving hearts. Help us to know your presence in one another, and guide us to a deeper life with you.

We thank you also for all those who have joined this community, in baptism, confirmation, or in attending as our friends and guests.

Now, we pray for your protection and guidance to those who leave and to those who stay. As students of Jesus, God-with-us, may we serve you and the world through lives of radical love.

Amen.

DISMISSAL

Alleluia, Alleluia! Let us go forth in the power of the Spirit!

Thanks be to God; Alleluia, Alleluia!

Please join us for light refreshments after the service.

If you're interested in serving in the liturgy, we'd love to talk to you!
