The Advent/Christmas Wreath, which was given to St. Mark's by Scilla Adams in loving memory of her father, Colonel Neil Ramsay, was hand-forged by Richard A. Martin, a metal sculpture in Alexandria, Virginia. This work is made of steel with solid-link chains and hammered drip pans, painted black and measuring three feet in diameter, with a cross hanging beneath the central candle.

SUNDAY WORSHIP SCHEDULE

9:00 am Holy Eucharist (Family Eucharist is celebrated the second Sunday of most months)

9:00 am Children's Chapel (not offered when Family Eucharist is celebrated at 9:00 am)

10:00 am Sermon Seminar

11:15 am Holy Eucharist

5:00 pm Contemplative Eucharist We formally begin the worship service with the Prelude, a musical offering designed to bring us together for worship that allows for quiet reflection before the service begins. Please respect this time by refraining from conversations in the Nave as much as possible. While greeting each other is important, we ask that you do so outside the Nave or near the doors so that others can have quiet time.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

OPENING SENTENCES

We have heard tidings of the Lord.

And a messenger has been sent among the nations

A period of silence is observed.

THE COLLECT

Let us pray:

God of hope: when Christ your Son appears, may he not find us asleep or idle, but active in his service and ready. Amen

Please be seated.

THE FIRST READING Romans 13:11-14

You know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us live honorably as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.

Thanks be to God.

Please be seated.

THE GOSPEL Matthew 24:36-44

The Gospel of Jesus according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the disciples, "But about that day and hour no one knows, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. For as the days of Noah were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark, and they knew nothing until the flood came and swept them all away, so too will be the coming of the Son of Man. Then two will be in the field; one will be taken and one will be left. Two women will be grinding meal together; one will be taken and one will be left. Keep awake therefore, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. But understand this: if the owner of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.”

The Gospel of Jesus.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please be seated.

HOMILY

Mr. Joe Hubbard

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven.
By the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again,
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

A period of silence is observed.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Creator we offer, our hearts and minds, that we may know wholeness in the unity of God and God's Creation and ourselves.

Take a moment to pause and feel God with us.

Holy One, open our hearts to your presence among us. Help us to see your loving-kindness at work in the world.

Emanuel, make us one.

Holy One, we give you thanks for bringing us into this community, where you experience yourself in our humanity. We ask you to fill us with your Spirit that, in us, others may come to know you. Emanuel, God with us,

Make us one.

Holy One, you become flesh and dwell in the midst of this sacred circle through which all your Creation is related. We ask you to bind us together, from the four directions of the earth, as members of the same body. Emanuel, God with us,

Make us one.

In you alone we find wholeness. Help us be gentle, honest, generous, and compassionate, that we may walk our path with joy and love for ourselves, one another, and all your Creation. Bring us into balance with you, with the earth, with each other. Emanuel, God with us,

Make us one.

Help us surrender our pride, our ambition, our power, and our control to you, that we may find peace and comfort in silence. And, when our time on this earth is ended, let us go peacefully, without regrets, into your presence, where, at last, we may all be one. Emanuel, God with us,

Make us one.

Each week we will pray for various facilities in the US where migrants may be detained:

Oh God, you have always been with the traveler, the migrant, and the refugee. Today, we pray for any detainees, and the guards and other staff, at:

Falfurrias Station, Corpus Christi Station and Weslaco Station in the state of Texas,
Utah County Jail and Weber County Correctional Facility *in the state of Utah

Give those incarcerated courage and hope; give those who work in these places compassion and honor; and help us all to build a better world.

I invite your prayers at this time, either silently or aloud.

Members of the congregation may offer their own prayers at this time.

Let us pray together.

Holy One, in this season of Advent, we reflect on the wonder of your choosing to enter into the human condition and walk with us along the path of life from birth to death. Help us to hear afresh the ancient story and the old songs that tell how you came to be known to us. Amen.

CONFESSION

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

God forgives you. Forgive others; forgive yourself.
Amen.

THE PEACE

May the peace of God be always with you!
And also with you.

All, one with another, exchange a sign of peace.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

God is present here.

God is always with us.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Holy One.

Let us give thanks to God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing.

You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love. And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we proclaim:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might: heaven and earth are full of your glory! Hosanna in the highest! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest!

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us.

He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor.

He yearned to draw all the world to himself, yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said:

“Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said:

“Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice:

Incarnate God, reveal yourself to us that we might reflect your loving light.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made. In the fullness of time bring us, with Mary, Mark, Elizabeth, and all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

AMEN.

Please note that during the season of Advent, we will pray with the contemporary translation of the Lord's Prayer.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as Jesus taught us, let us pray:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name;

Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread,

And forgive us our sins as we forgive those who have sinned against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil,

For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever.

Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Alleluia, Christ our Passover has sacrificed for us!
Therefore let us keep the feast! Alleluia!

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

We recognize this as God's table set before us and for all and this bread and wine as God's food for us and for all. Therefore whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe,

All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

THE COMMUNION

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available; please make your needs known to the minister.

If you would like someone to pray with you about anything that is on your mind or heart, please go to the Chapel after receiving communion for laying on of hands.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

God among us, we have been guests at your table; come with us wherever we go and be present in all that we share. Summon out of us generosity of spirit to ensure that all the hungry are nourished and earth's barren places are fertile with food, faith, hope and love. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Life is short, and we have but little time to gladden the hearts of those who travel the way with us. So be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And the blessing of God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us, be with you now and forever.

Amen.

DISMISSAL

This is the day that God has made;
We will rejoice and be glad in it.

We will not offer to God
Offerings that cost us nothing.

Go in peace to love and to serve;
We will seek peace and pursue it.

In the name of the Trinity of Love,
God in community, holy and one.

Please join us for light refreshments after the service.

The Advent Vestments and Hangings, made by Tracy Councill and Doris Burton, were a gift of the St. Mark's Arts Council in 2002. The design themes are from Isaiah. One chasuble, taken from the prophecies about a new Jerusalem, is intended to suggest anyone/everyone's journey as lit by the Star of Bethlehem. The other chasuble represents the Jesse Tree: a dead stump putting forth living branches that become a home for the spirit of God.

The chalice veil repeats the Jesse Tree image and incorporates the star/cross from the chasuble. The presider's stole introduces the theme of swords made into plowshares, here represented by a disused sword overtaken by morning glory vines, which symbolize love. The pulpit falls illustrate four images of the Peaceable Kingdom: a child playing around the adder's den; the lion and lamb together; swords turning into plowshares; and justice for all people.

Two stoles and the bread cover, woven by Doris Burton, are reminiscent of the homespun fabrics commonplace in the Holy Land. They include pink threads to acknowledge Advent III, Gaudete Sunday.
