Worship lies at the heart of the Christian life. It is in worship that we express our theology and define our identity. It is through encountering God within worship that we are formed and transformed as the people of God. One of the glories of the Episcopal Church is its liturgical worship. Liturgy refers to the patterns, forms, words, and actions through which public worship is conducted.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

WELCOME

LIGHTING THE ALTAR AND WREATH

OPENING SENTENCES

Blessed are you, holy and living One.
You come to your people and set them free.

A period of silence is observed.

LAMENT OF THE GATHERED

Compassionate Creator, Mother of us all and of our brother Jesus Christ, you know our deepest pain and sorrow. Behold our hearts hopes and disappointments. We are sometimes overwhelmed by what we cannot understand.

Spirit of Life, be with us.

We long for you to be more present in our lives.

Spirit of Life, be with us.

We have lost our way and are isolated in our sorrow.

Ever-present Spirit, stay with us.

We sometimes speak unjustly against others;

Restoring Spirit, heal us.

Many of us carry shame and guilt; we can be fearful and anxious for the future.

Restoring Spirit, heal us.

Grant us patience with you, ourselves, and one another.

Holy One, save us and help us.

Turn our grief into compassion for others and for ourselves.

Holy One, save us and help us.

Release us from fear, renew us in love, rekindle our hopes.

Holy One, save us and help us.

In all things, renew us by your Holy Spirit, that we may live always as children of light and life and love.

Amen.

CONFESSION

God of all love and mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your love in our lives.

We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.

We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.

Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve you in those we meet. Amen.

God forgives you; forgive yourself and go in peace. Amen

THE COLLECT

God be with you.
And also with you.

Let us pray.

God of hope, when Christ your Son appears may he not find us asleep or idle, but active in his service and ready; through the same Jesus Christ our Redeemer.

Amen.

THE FIRST READING 1 Corinthians 1:3-9

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind-- just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you-- so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL Mark 13:24-37

The Gospel of Jesus according to Mark.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “In those days, after that suffering,
the sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light,
and the stars will be falling from heaven,
and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

Then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in clouds’ with great power and glory. Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

“From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

“But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. Therefore, keep awake—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake.”

The Gospel of Jesus.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

AFFIRMATION

We believe in God the Creator, through whom every being in heaven and on earth has life.

We believe in God the Son, who walks with us and fills us with his love.

We believe in God the Holy Spirit, who lives in our hearts through faith and strengthens us with the power to be God's hands in the world.

We believe in one God: Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer. Amen

A period of silence is observed.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us pray to the Holy one, offering all of ourselves to connect to you, each other, and brings us faith and hope.

Holy One, we give you thanks that you open our hearts to your presence among us. Help us to see your loving-kindness at work in the world. Emanuel, God with us,
Make us one.

Holy One, we give you thanks for bringing us into this community. We ask you to fill us with your Spirit that others may come to know you in us. Emanuel, God with us,
Make us one.

Holy One, we give you thanks that you help us be gentle, honest, generous, and compassionate. We ask that you continue to entrust us to walk our path with joy and love for your Creation. Emanuel, God with us,
Make us one.

Holy One, we give you thanks that in you we find wholeness. Help us to be in balance with you, with your Creation, with each other, and with ourselves, that we may know the purpose for which we were created when you knit us in our mothers' wombs. Emanuel, God with us,
Make us one.

Holy One, we give you thanks that, in these strange times, you have continued to affix us to our beloved community. We ask that you continue to care for us and our relations with each other. Emanuel, God with us,
Make us one.

Holy One, we ask that you help us find peace and comfort and, when our time on this earth is ended, that we may go peacefully, without regrets, into your presence, where, at last, we may all be one. Emanuel, God with us,
Make us one.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

The people may add their own prayers either silently, aloud, or in the comments.

Let us pray together.

Holy One: in this time of anxiety, we yearn for your presence among us. In this season of Advent, help us and walk with us along the path of life. Help us hear the ancient story and the old songs that tell how you came to be known to us. Amen.

THE PEACE

The peace of God be always with you.
And also with you.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Walk in love as Christ loves us.

We lift an offertory plate acknowledging the online giving and checks that have been mailed into the office this week.

We are so grateful for your ongoing support.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Lord is here.

God's Spirit is with us.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to offer thanks and praise.

It is the joy of our salvation, God of the universe, to give you thanks through Jesus Christ. You said, 'Let there be light'; there was light. Your light shines on in our darkness. For you the earth has brought forth life in all its forms.

You send your Holy Spirit to strengthen and to guide, to warn and to revive your Church. Therefore, with all your witnesses who surround us on every side, countless as heaven's stars, we praise you for our creation with loving and with joyful hearts, as we sing:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might: heaven and earth are full of your glory! Hosanna in the highest! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest!

Blessed are you, most holy, in your Son; On that night before he died he took bread and gave you thanks. He broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you; do this to remember me.

After supper, he took the cup, and gave you thanks. He gave it to them and said: Drink this. It is my blood of the new covenant, shed for you, shed for all, to forgive sin; do this to remember me.

Therefore with this bread and wine we recall your goodness to us. God of the past and present, we your people remember your Son. We thank you for his cross and resurrection; we take courage from his ascension; we look for his coming in glory and in him we give ourselves to you.

With thanksgiving and hope we say:

Glory to you, Lord Christ;
your death we show forth;
your resurrection we proclaim;
your coming we await; Amen!

Send your Holy Spirit, that we who receive Christ's body may indeed be the body of Christ, and we who share his cup draw strength from the one true vine. Called to follow Christ, help us to reconcile and unite. Called to suffer, give us hope in our grief. Heavenly one, make all things new; you are the beginning and the end, the last and the first, to whom we bring our songs of everlasting praise.

Blessing, honor and glory be yours, here and everywhere, now and forever. Amen.

Throughout this section of the season of Pentecost, we are using the traditional translation of the Lord's Prayer.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Let us now observe one minute of silence.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Alleluia, Christ our Passover has sacrificed for us!
Therefore let us keep the feast! Alleluia!

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

We recognize this as God's table set before us and for all and this bread and wine as God's food for us and for all. Therefore, whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe,

All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

THE COMMUNION

If you have bread and wine in your home you are welcome to consume it now. If you would like us to deliver a blessed communion wafer to you please contact Michele@stmarks.net

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Together, let us pray.

Father of all, we give you thanks and praise, that when we were still far off you met us in your Son and brought us home. In his living, dying and rising, he declared your love, gave us grace and opened the gate of glory. May we who share Christ's body live his risen life; we who drink his cup bring life to others; we whom the Spirit lights give light to the world. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Live without fear: your Creator has made you holy, has always protected you, and loves you as a mother. Go in peace to follow the good road and may God's blessing be with you always.

Amen.

DISMISSAL

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Welcome Newcomers!

We hope you feel a sense of connection as we share this time together online. There are many other opportunities to get involved with St. Mark's, even remotely.
