

WELCOME TO
ST. MARK'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
CAPITOL HILL

ST. MARK'S MISSION STATEMENT

St. Mark's is an open community, welcoming people wherever they are on their faith journey. We celebrate the gifts of God that empower us to engage boldly in the struggles of life and to care for others with love, justice, and compassion.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

OPENING SENTENCES

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever.
Amen.

We are God's stewards.
We honor our Creator by caring for ourselves.
We follow Jesus by caring for each other.
We embody the Holy Spirit by caring for the world.
Amen.

THE COLLECT

The Holy Spirit is upon you!
And also upon you!

Let us pray:

O God: because we often fail to heed your call to use our time in ways that glorify you, we pray for the wisdom and strength to use our talents in ways that shows our power to create a better world; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

You are invited to hold silence

THE READING Hebrews 5:1-10

Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not presume to take this honor, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was.

So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him,

“You are my Son,
today I have begotten you”;
as he says also in another place,
“You are a priest forever,
according to the order of Melchizedek.”

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission.

Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL Mark 10:35-45

The Gospel of Jesus according to Mark.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to Jesus and said to him, “Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.” And he said to them, “What is it you want me to do for you?” And they said to him, “Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.” But Jesus said to them, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?” They replied, “We are able.” Then Jesus said to them, “The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.”

When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, “You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.”

The Gospel of Jesus.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE CREED

We believe in God, the Creator, who gives us life and the ability to care for ourselves.

We believe in God's son, Jesus, who models the will to sacrifice for all and walks with us as we care for each other.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, who offers prophetic wisdom and calls us to care for God's creation.

In honoring the Holy Trinity, we are faithful stewards of all of God's creation. Amen.

CONFESSION

God, our failures to honor you by loving and serving each other betray your trust in us.

A period of silence is observed.

Again we ask for your grace to teach, forgive, and embrace us.

We will notice our failures to learn rather than shame ourselves.

We will care for ourselves so that we may care for others.

We will heed your call to care for the vulnerable.

We will show our gratitude for your mercy by embodying love and seeking justice.

Amen.

God knows our imperfection and gladly grants us mercy.

Through Jesus Christ, who forgives and lets us forgive, so that all may be free to take risks for love, and by the power of the Holy Spirit, make you strong for others.

Amen.

You are invited to hold silence

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us pray.

God, you honor us by trusting us to care for your world. Give us the grace to follow your command to love and serve each other.

By your grace,

We are your faithful stewards.

Creator, you made us in your image to carry out your dream for the world. Give us the wisdom to know and care for ourselves.

By your grace,

We are your faithful stewards.

Jesus, you modeled for us a life of healing and teaching. Give us the strength to follow your example in caring for each other.

By your grace,

We are your faithful stewards.

Redeemer, you inspired Paul to proclaim the church as your body. Give us the humility to create a community of authenticity, openness, and love.

By your grace,

We are your faithful stewards.

Holy Spirit, you whisper God's truth in our ears and anchor God's love in our souls. Give us the power to honor these gifts so that we may be your hands and voice in the world.

By your grace,

We are your faithful stewards.

Sustainer, you connect all of us to you and to each other. Give us the empathy to be present for those in trouble and those who mourn.

By your grace,

We are your faithful stewards.

You may offer your own prayers either silently, aloud, or in the comments.

In peace, we pray to you, ever-present God.

God, as you have entrusted us with caring for each other and the world you love, we entrust these prayers to you in the faith that you will give us all what we need. Amen.

THE PEACE

The peace of God be with you!

And also with you.

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Walk in love as Christ loves us.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

Creator God, be with us.
As you are always with us.

We give you thanks for your Creation.
And that you included us.

Create with us now a Holy Circle.
So that we might honor you with our praise and service.

Creator God, out of nothingness you create everything: the universe and all the life within it. You breathe life into us, your children, and give us this beautiful earth as our home. And you create the most powerful force in the universe: love.

You call us to be faithful stewards of your creation by loving and serving you and our neighbors.

You grant us freedom to choose and send prophets to teach us, hoping that we will learn from our mistakes. But we ignore your call to put love and justice above our selfish desires.

Seduced by the abundance of creation, we waste the bounty of the earth and each other. Led astray by our power, we put our comfort above our responsibility to care for each other. Deluded by our intelligence, we resist your prophets' teachings.

And since you never abandoned us, we praise your love for your creation and for us, your children.

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

You sent your son and our brother, Jesus. By word and deed, he taught us how to love each other.

And yet we resisted the power of wisdom, courage, and compassion, killing him as we assault your creation and each other.

Caring for us until the end, Jesus left us with a gift just before he was betrayed. At his last meal with his friends, he broke bread and gave it to them, saying “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he passed around a cup of wine, saying “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.” And so we celebrate the mystery of faith.

You, our Creator, trust us. We fail you and each other. Yet you love and care for us always.

And so we come to you once more in humility.

We ask that you send the Holy Spirit to dance among us as we gather in a circle of love. Bless this bread and this wine that we have made from your creation and allow us to feel your presence as we enjoy them. All this we ask in the name of our risen brother Jesus, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

Amen.

During this portion of Pentecost, we pray with the traditional translation of the Lord’s Prayer.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

We recognize this as God’s table set before us and this bread and wine as God’s food for all.

Therefore, whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe,

All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Let us pray:

God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and each other, in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

THE BLESSING

We are God's wisdom in this world. Let us learn how to love each other as much as we love God. We are Jesus's hands in this world. Let us care for each other as well as Jesus cared for his people. We are the Holy Spirit's voice in the world. Let us proclaim love and justice to all with the power of St. Mark and all of your saints.

And the blessing of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit be upon us now and forever.

Amen.

DISMISSAL

Let us go forth caring for the world as God cares for us.

Thanks be to God.

Welcome Newcomers!
