Worship

1. All Souls' Day Service of Remembrance

[10/15]

Have you lost a loved one in the past year, or 2 or 3? Are you in the midst of grief and healing over that or another loss you are experiencing? In honor of All Souls' Day, we will be gathering on Sunday, November 5th at 6:00 p.m. for a contemplative Service of Remembrance. You will be invited to talk briefly about the person who is no longer with us if you feel so moved. You may bring a photo or something that reminds you of the dear ones gone. Recognizing the many members of our community who have died since 2020, we will also read their names aloud. All are welcome to join us in a circle around the altar. Questions? Contact Michele Rivard ([mmrivard\[at\]hotmail.com](mailto:mmrivard[at]hotmail.com)) or The Rev. Patricia Catalano ([adjunct\[at\]stmarks.net](mailto:adjunct[at]stmarks.net)).

Christian Education

2. Seeking volunteer(s) to lead Sunday morning or weekday evening Bible Study class

[10/29]

For decades, Saint Marks had a Sunday Morning Bible school, but in recent years we have been unable to find a new teacher or teachers to continue the tradition. The Christian Ed co-directors are reaching out to the parish community to see if there are any individuals who would be interested in leading a Bible Study on Sunday morning or on a weekday evening. This could be either in person, virtual, or hybrid. Please contact Greg Niblett ([gregniblett\[at\]hotmail.com](mailto:gregniblett[at]hotmail.com) or 202.297.5559) or Annabelle Swift ([annabelleswift31\[at\]gmail.com](mailto:annabelleswift31[at]gmail.com)) if you are interested in leading such a class or discussing or exploring this opportunity further. Former teachers would be willing to share their experiences with you as you consider this opportunity.

3. Economic Inequality Reading Group (3rd meeting Nov 28, 7:00pm Elders Room)

[10/29] You are invited to a monthly reading group focused on economic inequality in the current United States. The group offers an opportunity for thoughtful conversation centered on nine books by diverse authors. The authors approach education, healthcare, housing, gender and racial inequalities, sexuality, location, incarceration and immigration with a common theme of economic inequality. Selected from a variety of genres, each book will guide a discussion of understanding with compassion and responding boldly to the suffering and structural injustices of economic inequality.

A list of the texts and dates is posted on the foyer bulletin board and available in the Christian Education catalog. All are welcome to join monthly or drop in as time and interest allows. The third meeting will focus on Race for Profit: How Banks and the Real Estate Industry Undermined Black Homeownership by Keeanga-Yamahtta Taylor.

The group facilitator is Angie Cecil. Please be in touch with questions: [angie.e.cecil\[at\]gmail.com](mailto:angie.e.cecil[at]gmail.com)

4. Reflection on Violence in Gaza After 11:15 Service 11/5 & 11/12

[10/29]

Green Lions invite you to join us in the Dozier Library after the 11:15 service for a quiet time of reflection to share thoughts and concerns about the current violence in Gaza and its impact on the land and people of the region.

11/5 Dr Philip Farah will be with us for our listening session. Philip has relatives in Gaza where his family resided and was a member of the Orthodox church which was bombed with civilians killed seeking shelter.

He grew up in Jerusalem and attended St George's School in Jerusalem, and the American University of Beirut and completed his doctoral studies at the University of New Mexico. Dr Farah retired Oct 31 from federal government service as an economist and is on the advisory board of the Episcopal Peace Fellowship Palestine Israel Network (EPF-PIN). [10/29]

Our next Zoom meeting is scheduled for November 14, at 7:30 p.m. Please note: start time delayed to 7:30 p.m. We will be discussing our thoughts following the meeting last month, where we viewed the documentary film, Redemption, and welcomed Council Member Charles Allen. If you missed this event, you can view the documentary and comments from that evening on this link: <https://tinyurl.com/STMIJOct10>

We will do some brainstorming about next steps. Also: check out the podcast produced by Ms. Bailey: Voices Unlocked. Contact Jan Lipscomb to be added to the list if you are interested in attending or receiving updates. You will receive email notices no more than 4 - 6 times per month. [juanita.lipscomb\[at\]gmail.com](mailto:juanita.lipscomb@gmail.com)

6. Volunteers Needed - Supply Sorting for People Migrating

[10/22]n

Washington is one of the "landing sites" for the many thousands of Migrants who are in transit to other cities and towns across the country. Capitol Hill United Methodist Church (CHUMC) has taken the lead for collecting and distributing the donated supplies and clothing (of which St. Mark's supplies the underwear, shoes and socks!). Currently, they need a few volunteers on a regular basis to assist with the tasks of sorting, folding, and organizing these items. Teams of 2-3 people, even once a month for a particular day/time slot, would be very helpful and greatly appreciated.

Specifically, they have asked for help with the following:

Mondays

1-3pm - sorting, folding, and organizing clothing and supplies

3-6pm - assisting with selection and other tasks (for example, accompanying the children while their families are selecting the clothing and supplies)

Wednesdays

12-1pm - sorting, folding, and organizing clothing and supplies

1-3pm - assisting with selection and other tasks (for example, accompanying the children while their families are selecting the clothing and supplies)

Thursdays

evenings, 6-8 pm: serving meals, assisting with selection of clothing, and providing rides to temporary housing

The person to contact is Jackie Giovanniello, [jgiovanniello14\[at\]gmail.com](mailto:jgiovanniello14@gmail.com). For any additional questions, email Julie Murphy at [socialjustice\[at\]stmarks.net](mailto:socialjustice@stmarks.net).

Show the world how St. Mark's has shown up in your life by giving us text and optionally a photo or other image to share on instagram.com/wearestmarks. This might be at worship, or in a class, or fellowship in Baxter Hall, or something elsewhere somehow connected to your experience of the congregation. Since the season will soon be upon us, a moment based in Advent or Christmas would be particularly wonderful, but not required. Also great but optional: a photo or drawing that represents your story.
