Land Acknowledgement We acknowledge with respect the history, spirituality, and culture of the peoples on whose traditional territory we are located, specifically the Piscataway and Nacotchtank (Anacostan) peoples. We make this acknowledgment mindful of the traumatic events and the ongoing forces of systemic racism and oppression that forced native peoples from their lands. We continue our commitment to learning, growing, and finding a new way forward for meaningful, mutual healing.

THE FIRST READING 1 Corinthians 8:1-13

Now concerning food sacrificed to idols: we know that “all of us possess knowledge.” Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. Anyone who claims to know something does not yet have the necessary knowledge; but anyone who loves God is known by him.

Hence, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that “no idol in the world really exists,” and that “there is no God but one.” Indeed, even though there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth—as in fact there are many gods and many lords—yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist.

It is not everyone, however, who has this knowledge. Since some have become so accustomed to idols until now, they still think of the food they eat as food offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. “Food will not bring us close to God.” We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. But take care that this liberty of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. For if others see you, who possess knowledge, eating in the temple of an idol, might they not, since their conscience is weak, be encouraged to the point of eating food sacrificed to idols? So by your knowledge those weak believers for whom Christ died are destroyed. But when you thus sin against members of your family, and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food is a cause of their falling, I will never eat meat, so that I may not cause one of them to fall.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.

Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA Celtic Alleluia

It is brought to us through his Son Jesus Christ.*

THE GOSPEL Mark 1:21-28

The Gospel of Jesus according to John.

Glo - ry to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus and his disciples went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.” But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, “What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.” At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

The Gospel of Jesus.

Praise to — you, Lord Christ.

SERMON

The Reverend Michele H. Morgan

A CELTIC CREED

Together, let us affirm our faith:

We believe in God above, maker and sustainer of all life, of sun and moon of water and Earth of male, female, non-binary, cisgender, and transgender.

We believe in God beside us, Jesus Christ, the word made flesh, born of a woman, servant to the poor, tortured and nailed to a tree. A man of sorrows, he died forsaken.

He descended into the Earth to the place of death. On the third day, he rose from the tomb. He ascended into heaven to be everywhere present, and his kin-dom will come on earth.

We believe in God within us, the Holy Spirit of Pentecostal fire, the life-giving breath of the church, Spirit of healing and forgiveness, source of resurrection, and eternal life. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Eternal God, whom our words may cradle but never contain, we thank you for all the sound and silence and color and symbols which, through the centuries, have helped the worship of your Church to be relevant and real.

Here, we pause to remember those who helped us to come to faith by singing songs or telling us stories, by inviting us in when we felt distant, and by praying for us without being asked.

Silence is kept.

We remember the preachers, the readers, the musicians, the leaders, whose sensitivity and skill have helped us to grow in faith and enjoy worshiping you.

Silence is kept.

We remember those who encourage people to raise you outside the sanctuary:

those who teach young people,
those who lead youth groups,
those who take prayers to hospitals, schools, and prisons.

Silence is kept.

Finally, we pray for ourselves and for those who are closely connected to us:

our family, our friends, and all those needing our prayers.

Let us pray for our needs and those of others...

Members of the congregation may offer their own prayers at this time.

Together, let us pray:

God, we thank you for always being with us. Open and transform our hearts so that we might connect more deeply with the needs of others and be moved to be your love and care in the world. Help us to keep courage as we learn, share, and give. Amen.

Elin Whitney-Smith, dance leader; Marika Klein, soloist

*First time: Soloist only; Second time: Choir only;
Third time: All are invited to stand, sing, and do the movements in place.*

'Tis the gift to be sim-ple, 'tis the gift to be free, 'tis the gift to come down where we ought to be, and when we find our-selves in the place just right, 'twill be in the val-ley of love and de-light. When true sim-plic-i-ty is gained to bow and to bend we shan't be a-shamed, to turn, turn, will be our de-light till by turn - ing, turn - ing we come round right.

THE PEACE

Christ, the Good Shepherd, binds us with a bond of love that cannot be broken. My siblings, may the Peace of the Lord always be with you.
And also with you.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

Words by Frederick W. Faber, alt.

Music by Calvin Hampton, arr. Rick McNeely

Chancel Choir

*There's a wideness in God's mercy like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in his justice, which is more than liberty.
There is welcome for the sinner, and more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Savior; there is healing in his blood.*

*There is no place where earth's sorrows are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth's failings have such kindly judgment given.
There is plentiful redemption in the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members in the sorrows of the Head.*

*For the love of God is broader than the measures of our mind,
And the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more faithful, we should take him at his word;
And our lives would be thanksgiving for the goodness of the Lord.*

PRESENTATION HYMN 493 O for a thousand tongues to sing

6 Glory to God and praise and love be now and ever given by saints below and saints above,
the Church in earth and heaven.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, for you made us, and before us, you made the world we inhabit, and before the world, you made the eternal home in which, through Christ, we have a place.

All that is spectacular; all that is plain have their origins in you; all that is lovely; all who are loving point to you as their fulfillment.

And grateful as we are for the world we know and the universe beyond our ken, we particularly praise you whom eternity cannot contain, for coming to earth and entering time in Jesus. For his life which informs our living, for his compassion which changes our hearts, for his clear speaking that contradicts our confusion, for his disturbing presence, for his innocent suffering, for his fearless dying, his rising to life breathing forgiveness, we praise you and follow him.

Here also, our gratitude rises from the promise of the Holy Spirit, who even now confronts us with your claims and attracts us to your goodness. Therefore, we gladly join our voices to the song of the Church on earth as in heaven.

SANCTUS WLP 853

Susan Calvin Fletcher

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,

God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

And now, lest we believe that our praises alone fulfill your purpose, we fall silent and remember him who came because words are not enough. Setting our wisdom, our will, our words aside, emptying our heart, and bringing nothing in our hands, we yearn for the healing, the holding, the accepting, the forgiving, which Christ alone can offer.

Merciful god, send now, in kindness, your Holy Spirit to settle on this bread and wine and fill them with the fullness of Jesus. And let that same Spirit rest on us, converting us from the patterns of this passing world, until we conform to the shape of him whose food we now share.

Among friends, gathered around a table, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, and broke it, and said, 'This is my body— broken for you. Take it, all of you, to remember me.'

Later, he took a cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "This is the new relationship with God made possible because of my death. drink it, all of you, to remember me.'

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

He whom the universe could not contain is present to us in this bread. He who redeemed us and called us by name now meets us in this cup. So take the bread and this wine. In them, God comes to us so that we may come to God.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as Jesus taught us, let us pray:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name;

Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread,

And forgive us our sins as we forgive those who have sinned against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil,

For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever.

Amen.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

We recognize this as God's table set before us and this bread and wine as God's food for all. Therefore, whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe or do not believe, all are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

THE COMMUNION

St. Mark's receives communion "in the round" as a symbol of our strong belief in the power of community.

You will be offered bread by a celebrant, and invited to drink from the common cup.

Please refrain from intincting (dipping) the host (the bread) into the wine.

We offer Laying on of Hands in the chapel on the first and third Sunday of the month. On those Sundays, you may receive communion and go to the chapel to have prayers.

Let us pray, saying together:

In gratitude, in deep gratitude for this moment, this meal, these people, we give ourselves to you. May we live as changed people because we have shared the Living Bread and cannot remain the same. Ask much of us, expect much from us, enable much by us, and encourage many through us. So, God, we live to your glory, both as inhabitants of Earth and citizens of the Commonwealth of Heaven. Amen

The Epiphany Star above the altar is a gift from Joya Cox, its creator. It is a stellated icosahedron (20-sided polygon with a triangular solid shape built on each of the faces of that polygon). As its name indicates, the star was originally commissioned to mark the Epiphany, the Christian feast day commemorating the visit of the Magi to the Christ Child, and Jesus Christ's physical manifestation to the world. The imagery of a star, with its light distant but still visible, is also appropriate for Advent, and as a result is now displayed during the season of Advent as well as during Epiphanytide. The star was restored by Jim Pittman, Junior Warden, 2020-2023.

The Needlepoint Star carried behind the cross was made by Doris Burton and given in memory of her husband Jack Burton. It is carried in procession throughout Epiphany.
