PRELUDE Scherzo - Trio on Nettleton David Schelat (b. 1955) OPENING HYMN 686

Come, thou fount of every blessing Nettleton

OPENING SENTENCES

Listen to the silence.
Hear the Voice of all;
The still, small Voice.
The Voice of God.

Silence is observed.

Seek the silence.
Find the Source of all.
That still, small Voice.
The Voice of God.

Silence is observed.

Welcome the silence.
Live in the Center of all;
The still, small Voice.
The Voice of God.

THE COLLECT

Let us pray

Almighty God, you know that we have no power in ourselves to help ourselves: Keep us both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in our souls, that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

(9:00) Children up to 7 years old wishing to participate in Children's Chapel may follow the leader at this time.

(9:00) Children ages 7-11 wishing to participate in the Next Gen Reflection may go downstairs to the Adams Room.

The people sit.

THE FIRST READING Romans 5:1-11

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person-- though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us. Much more surely then, now that we have been justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more surely, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life. But more than that, we even boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 95 *Venite, exultemusSung by the choir.Come, let us sing to the Lord;
let us shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation.Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving and raise a loud shout to him with psalms.For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.In his hand are the caverns of the earth, and the heights of the hills are his also.The sea is his, for he made it,
and his hands have molded the dry land.Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, and kneel before the Lord our Maker.For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.
Oh, that today you would hearken to his voice!Harden not your hearts, as your forebears did in the wilderness, at Meribah, and on that day at Massah, when they tempted me.They put me to the test, though they had seen my works.Forty years long I detested that generation and said,
"This people are wayward in their hearts;
they do not know my ways."So I swore in my wrath,
"They shall not enter into my rest."THE GOSPEL John 4:5-42

The Gospel of Jesus according to John.

Jesus came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon.

A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?" Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water."

Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come back." The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband'; for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!" The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth." The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking to you."

Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, "What do you want?" or, "Why are you speaking with her?" Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the city. She said to the people, "Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?" They left the city and

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

7

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us pray for the Church, ourselves, and the world.

Gracious God: As we walk through this season of Lent, we give thanks for our chosen spiritual home, all who guide and work for it, here and abroad.

Our help comes from you.

Creator God, who breathed this world into being and established a covenant with those who follow you: bring us out of the captivity of our lives into your promised land. Our help comes from you.

Forgiving God, you entrusted to us this world of wonder and delight, yet we so often use it for our own glory rather than yours. Awaken us to its beauty, to its fragility, and to our call to speak and act for its healing.

Our help comes from you.

8

Loving God, you hold every life as precious. We pray for everyone affected by the conflict among Iran, Israel, and the United States, for the dead and the grieving, the fearful and the displaced. Do not let us look away from their suffering. Turn our hearts and our leaders toward peace, and renew in us compassion and courage.

Our help comes from you.

Loving God, you taught that none are forgotten in your sight. Be near to the lonely, the isolated, and the weary. Carry us all through these dark days, and breathe new life into us, as you breathe new life into the earth each spring.

Our help comes from you.

Living God, your Son walked among us and touched those the world overlooked. Help us remember the unhoused, the refugee, and the stranger, and remind us that we are your hands in the world.

Our help comes from you.

Comforting God, you welcomed your Son home after his earthly life. Welcome into your embrace all those we have loved and lost, those we remember and those we do not, those known and those forgotten, and remind us that one day we too shall be welcomed home.

Our help comes from you.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

Community members may now offer petitions ending with “This is my prayer,” to which all will respond, “Amen.”

Merciful God, grant that what we, your servants, have prayed for, we may have grace to work for; and in the purpose of your love, answer our prayers and fulfill our hope. Amen.

CONFESSION

Together,
Forgiving God,
we have sinned against you;
we have done evil in your sight.
We are sorry and repent.
Have mercy on us according to your love.
Wash away our wrongdoing and cleanse us from our sin.

9

Renew a right spirit within us
and restore us to the joy of your salvation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ABSOLUTION

God forgives you, forgive yourself and go in peace.

THE PEACE

May the peace of God be with you!
And also with you.

VESTRY GREETING

(11:15) ANNOUNCEMENTS

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Offer to the Holy One a sacrifice of Thanksgiving and make good your vows to the Most High.

(Psalm 50:14)

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Lord, Who Throughout These Forty Days Detroit, arr. Zebulon M. Highben Chancel Choir

*Lord, who throughout these forty days, for us did fast and pray, Teach us with you to mourn our sins, and close by you to stay.
As you with Satan did contend, and did the vict'ry win,
O give us strength in you to fight, in you to conquer sin.
As you did hunger and bear thirst, so teach us, gracious Lord,
To die to self, and always live by your most holy word.
And through these days of penitence, and through your Passiontide, Forevermore, in life and death, O Lord, with us abide.
Abide with us that when this life of suffering is past,
An Easter of unending joy we may attain at last!*

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

God be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to God.

Let us give thanks to God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Eternal God, in the abundance of your love, you have caused all things to be; from dust and spirit you have woven our humanity; in all our wanderings, you never cease to call us to fullness of life.

You gave us Jesus, son of Mary, the bread of life broken for the world; he fed us and feasted with us, suffering with us, in his dying and rising, sharing with us the pattern of our living.

Therefore, with all whom you have made, cherished, and called, with all who hunger for your kingdom and will not rest until all your children are fed, with the broken saints and redeemed sinners of all the ages, we take up the song of your praise:

THE SANCTUS S122 Deus Genitor Alme

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

We ask that your Holy Spirit fall upon us and upon these gifts that these fragile, earthly things may be to us the body and blood of our lord and brother, Jesus Christ; who, on the night that he was betrayed, gathered with his faltering friends for a meal that tasted of freedom.

Calling them to his table, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and said, “This, my body, I give to you. Eat and remember me.” In the same way, after supper, he took the cup, saying: “This, my blood, I give to you. Drink and remember me.”

As on that night, so here and now he offers himself in touch and taste beyond all words can hold. Great is the mystery of faith.

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Therefore, in our eating and drinking, we are filled with Jesus’ life-giving presence; we proclaim him as creation’s host, transforming poverty into plenty in the reckless generosity of love.

Inspire us with the hope that one day death and greed will be no more and people without number will come from east and west, north and south to share the kingdom meal. AMEN

THE LORD’S PRAYER

And now, as Jesus taught us, let us pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION S160 Deus Genitor Alme

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world:
have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

We recognize this as God's table and this bread and wine as God's food for us all. Therefore, whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe or do not believe, All are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

THE COMMUNION

St. Mark's receives communion "in the round" as a symbol of our strong belief in the power of community.

You will be offered bread by a celebrant and invited to drink from the common cup. Please put out your hands to help guide the cup to your lips, and drink.

If you do not wish to receive the wine, please cross your hands over your chest. Please refrain from intincting (dipping) the host (the bread) into the wine.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Together, let us pray.

Lord of this feast beyond measure and price: we thank you for meeting us in our brokenness so that none might be lost: liberate us now to share bread with our neighbor, each receiving from the other what we need to be ourselves. Amen.

more, shield, thee, feed me now and ev - er - more, be thou still my strength and shield, I will ev - er give to thee.

THE BLESSING

May our wilderness bear no terror for us, only truth. May our truth never break us, only make bold our strength. May we, in our strength, seek not to sustain only ourselves but make swift our service to others. And may the blessing of God – Creator, Redeemer, Sustainer – shine in us and through us, this day and always.

Amen.

DISMISSAL

In this season of contemplation, let us move into a world

As we move into the season of Lent, you will notice several changes: the cross over the altar is the broken mirror cross created by the late Joya Cox symbolizing our broken nature. All the silver is stored until Easter: the offering plates, alms basin; the candlesticks on the altar are wood and our chalices are pottery. The acolytes wear Jerusalem crosses made of olive wood from Bethlehem on purple ribbons. The hangings on the pulpit, lectern and altar are purple, the color of penitence, as are the stoles worn by the clergy. All crosses are draped in purple until Holy Week when the color changes to red.
