Welcome to St. Mark's Episcopal Church ✕ Capitol Hill

To view the parish calendar online, go to our homepage www.stmarks.net and click “Calendar” at the top of the page.

Hearing – Infrared headsets providing amplified sound are in the tract racks by the doors, or ask an usher. St. Mark's is also equipped with a hearing loop. This allows many hearing aid wearers to use their hearing aids' telecoil, or T-coil, setting to transmit speech picked up by the microphones directly to their aids. Enabling this setting on your hearing aids may make it easier to hear and understand people using wireless mics or speaking at the podiums.

Restrooms are available in the foyer, with more downstairs.

Childcare – The Nursery is open until 12:30 PM. Children up to PreK-3 are welcome. Take the stairs to the lower level; turn right to go down the hall to the Nursery, the last room on your right.

Land Acknowledgment – We acknowledge with respect the history, spirituality, and culture of the peoples on whose traditional territory we are located, specifically the Piscataway and Nacotchtank (Anacostan) peoples. We make this acknowledgment mindful of the traumatic events and the ongoing forces of systemic racism and oppression that forced native peoples from their lands. We continue our commitment to learning, growing, and finding a new way forward for meaningful, mutual healing.

OPENING SENTENCES

Today, the Spirit calls us!
Let us hear, and let us act.

THE COLLECT

God be with you.
And also with you.

Let us pray,

O God, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people sit.

THE FIRST READING Philippians 2:1-13

If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others. Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God

as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death-- even death on a cross.
Therefore God also highly exalted him
and gave him the name
that is above every name,
so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed me, not only in my presence, but much more now in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to us.

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL Matthew 21:23-32

The Gospel of Jesus according to Matthew.

When Jesus entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, “By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?” Jesus said to them, “I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things. Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?” And they argued with one another, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say to us, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ But if we say, ‘Of human origin,’ we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet.” So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.” And he said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

“What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work in the vineyard today.’ He answered, ‘I will not’; but later he changed his mind and went. The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, ‘I go, sir’; but he did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father?” They said, “The first.” Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him.”

The Gospel of Jesus.

SERMON

The Reverend Michele H. Morgan

AFFIRMATION

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

You are invited to hold silence.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

God has promised to hear us when we call in his son's name: let us lift our voices in prayer:

Let us give thanks for the multitude of blessings:

For our lives and the lives of those whom we love; for the beauty of the Earth you created, and for our families and friendships, Gracious God, we give you thanks.

Let us pray for the just use of God's creation.

Remind us, O God, to care for what you have given us, with attention and thought.

Let us pray for the Church and its mission.

For all clergy; for all lay people who serve parishes at home and around the world, and for those who gather in worship and prayer, O God, we give you thanks.

Let us pray for all who have not yet returned to their spiritual home.
Breathe fresh life, O God, into your people and guide them back.

Let us pray for the nations and peoples of the world.
Give strength, O God, to all people confronted by oppression, including refugees and the homeless, so that your presence is felt among them.

Let us pray for those whose decisions affect others' lives.
Inspire them, O God, to act with integrity and courage.

Let us pray for all who face pain and grief, here and elsewhere.
Hearten, O God, those who struggle wherever violence intrudes; may all face the future knowing you are by their side.

Let us pray for all who mourn.
Comfort them, O God, in the emptiness left behind.

Let us pray for those who have died, whether in the faith of Christ or those whose faith is known only to you.
Welcome your children to your arms, O God.

Let us pray for those in our lives and for others.

*All may now offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud, ending with
"This is my prayer" to which all will respond "Amen."*

Let us pray together saying:

Grant, O God, that we may walk in your presence with your love in our hearts, your truth in our minds, and your strength in our will until, at the end of our journey, we know the joy of homecoming and the welcome of your embrace, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM Draw Us in the Spirit's Tether

Harold W. Friedell

Chancel Choir

*Draw us in the Spirit's tether; for when humbly, in thy name,
Two or three are met together, thou art in the midst of them:
Alleluya! Alleluya! Touch we now thy garment's hem.*

*As the faithful used to gather in the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the Father break the bread and bless the cup, Alleluya! Alleluya! So knit thou our friendship up.*

*All our meals and all our living make as sacraments of thee,
That by caring, helping, giving, we may true disciples be.
Alleluya! Alleluya! We will serve thee faithfully.*

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

God is always present.
God is here among us!

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the living God.

Let us give thanks to our sovereign God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere, to thank you, Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS WLP 858

American Folk melody, arr. Marcia Pruner

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, ——— heaven and earth — are full of your glo - ry, Ho - san - na in — the high - est. Bless - ed is — the one who comes in the name of the Lord. ——— Ho - san - na in — the high - est, Ho - san - na in — the high - est.

Holy and gracious Mother: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Source of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen!

THE LORD'S PRAYER

As Christ teaches us, let us pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia.

ia. Christ our Pass - o - ver is sac - ri - ficed for us;

There - fore let us keep the feast. Al - le - lu - ia.

Al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

We recognize this as God's table set before us and this bread and wine as God's food for all. Therefore, whoever we are, from wherever we have come, and whatever we believe or do not believe, all are welcome and invited to receive. Amen!

THE COMMUNION

St. Mark's receives communion "in the round" as a symbol of our strong belief in the power of community. You will be offered bread by a celebrant and invited to drink from the common cup. Please put out your hands to help guide the cup to your lips, and drink. If you do not wish to receive the wine, please cross your hands over your chest. Please refrain from intincting (dipping) the host (the bread) into the wine.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

Lord, I trust thee

G. F. Handel

Chancel Choir

Lord, I trust thee, I adore thee. Ah! thou friend of man, restore me!

On thy loving grace relying, For the bread of life I'm sighing.

Quench my thirst and let my hunger cease, fill my heart with joy and endless peace.

When the breath of life has left me, may my soul be blended with thee.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

God of Life:

You have renewed us with the living bread from heaven; by it you nourish our faith, increase our hope, and strengthen our love: send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN 477 All praise to thee, for thou, O King divine

Engelberg

1 All praise to thee, for thou, O King di - vine,
2 Thou cam'st to us in low - li - ness of thought;
3 Let this mind be in us which was in thee,
4 Where - fore, by God's e - ter - nal pur - pose, thou
5 Let ev - ery tongue con - fess with one ac - cord

THE BLESSING

Now go in Peace, do what God wills, follow where Christ calls, pray for the gifts of the Spirit; and may the blessing of God: the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer rest on and remain with you now and always.

Amen.

DISMISSAL

Let us go forth in the power of the Spirit!

Thanks be to God.

Guest Organist Dr. Paula Maust is a performer, scholar, and educator dedicated to amplifying underrepresented voices. An early music specialist, she performs extensively as an organist and harpsichordist across the region with the Washington Bach Consort, Folger Consort, and In Series Opera. Paula also co-directs Musica Spira, a baroque chamber ensemble that tells the stories of early modern musical women. Their debut album of repertoire by Isabella Leonarda and Maria Perucona will be released this year. Paula is the creator of Expanding the Music Theory Canon, a collection of more than 500 musical examples by historical women and/or people of color. An anthology based on the project was released by SUNY Press in 2024. She is an Assistant Professor of Music Theory at the Peabody Conservatory of Johns Hopkins University.

Our Pentecost Paraments (hangings) were designed by the Altar Guild and financed by the Endowment Board. The pulpit fall, lectern fall, and veil reflect the symbols of the three regions from which our membership comes. They illustrate the bird, tree, butterfly, fish, and flower of DC, Virginia, and Maryland. They were made by English needle artist, Jacquie Binns, who designed and created our banner.
