

What's Happening at St. Mark's Announcements - October 4, 2026

From Parish Leadership & Staff

1. Oct 4 - Blessing of the Animals

[9/27]

Sunday, October 4, is St. Francis Day, which means that everyone is invited to bring their animal (real animal, stuffed animal or a photograph) to the service to receive a blessing.

2. New Building Security System Update

[10/5]

To look after St. Mark's and ensure our church remains a safe, friendly, and welcoming place for all, we are installing our new building security and lock system.

This week, we will finish the move to the new system, which will involve updating the door locks, the card readers, and the keypad locks. We will contact people who currently have fobs directly to inform them about replacing their existing fobs so they can still access the building conveniently. You do not need to do anything unless you are contacted.

These enhancements are part of our ongoing effort to care for our historic church while keeping a safe, open, and welcoming environment where worship, ministry, and community events take place. We'll keep you updated as the installation is completed. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Michele at [michele\[at\]stmarks.net](mailto:michele[at]stmarks.net).

Music and the Arts

3. Fabric Arts Show Submission Extension

[10/5]

Have you sent a snapshot and the dimensions of your entry to the Fabric Art show? The deadline was Sept 30th but because I'm a softie, I'll consider your – Knitting, crocheting, counted cross stitch, embroidery, quilting, or pasting fabric on cardboard to make a "painting" if you get it to me ASAP. We will be hanging the show on the 10th of October so I'm also looking for volunteers.

4. The Art Walk Was Great!

[9/27]

We had 14 artists. One artist counted 80 people who stopped to talk. Many people sold pieces.

Thanks to everyone who came out and to St Marks and the cookout folks.

The St Mark's arts program is grateful for the donations from artists who sold work, and the time and work from our wonderful volunteers. [elin\[at\]WatercolorDC.com](mailto:elin[at]WatercolorDC.com)

ECF is a nonprofit that operates three "urban farms" in PG County. Lunch will be served. This event is sponsored by Capitol Hill UMC, Christ City Church DC, Church at the Well, St. Mark's Episcopal Church, and Washington Community Fellowship. 9. Be a Good Samaritan – for Samaritan Ministry!

[10/5]

Forty years ago, St. Mark's joined other Episcopal churches in starting Samaritan Ministry to help people in need across the DMV. Since then, Ministry staff and volunteers have helped thousands of adults move from desperation to stability: learning life skills, finding homes, and getting jobs. Federal program cuts and layoffs now put the Ministry itself in danger as grants and donations diminish even while the needs increase. Now is the time to lend a helping hand: become an individual or corporate sponsor of the upcoming Gala on November 7, donate items for its auction, and attend the event. For details on these options, pick up a flyer on the windowsill in the foyer, go to samaritanministry.org/gala-2026, or contact Peter at [phawleydc\[at\]gmail.com](mailto:phawleydc[at]gmail.com). Feeling creative? Put together an enticing "theme basket" for the auction. Free baskets will be available on October 11.

11. Interfaith Action's Pen Pal Project

[9/27*]

Men and women convicted of a federal crime serve their sentences in a federal prison. They are incarcerated in 122 prisons around the US. As of June 2026, over 300 people have volunteered to be pen pals with a person incarcerated in a federal prison or a Virginia State Prison.

Over 150 additional people in prison have requested a pen pal, with new requests every week. We need more pen pals on the outside to meet this need. Both Gretchen Willson and Jan Lipscomb are resources at St. Mark's if you have additional questions. To become a Pen Pal, you must attend an hour-long Zoom Orientation. The next orientation will be on Wednesday, October 7, 2026, at 7:30 pm EDT. Register at https://www.interfaithactionhr.org/iahr_calendar.

12. Now is the Time to Order Palestinian Olive Oil

[10/4]

Palestinian Olive Oil is once again available, and NOW is the time to place your order. The two types most popular varieties, Al-Ard EVOO (Extra Virgin Organic, Oil is mild, smooth) & Canaan Rumi ("zesty", with more of a peppery finish) can be purchased in 1/2 liter bottles for $30. Order bottles individually or a case of 6 bottles for $180. The two cooperatives we support, Canaan and Al -Ard, produce extremely high quality, extra virgin and organic. Order early to ensure availability. Paid orders can be picked up Sunday, November 22 or December 13 from 10 am – 1pm. Use the QR code, visit <https://tinyurl.com/STMoliveoil26> or find the Olive Oil Poster on the Baxter Hall Bulletin Board. So, the blue bins are for recyclables: glass, aluminum, plastic (but not plastic bags), cardboard, clean and mostly clean paper (including our paper cups, but not including paper towels or napkins). 14. Sustainable Villages Honduras

[9/20]

St. Mark's parishioners have been involved in environmental and sustainability work in villages in Honduras since 1989. Since 2018, that work has been under the auspices of Sustainable Villages Honduras. The Green Lions are working to share about the incredible strides these villages have made toward installing toilets, providing clean water, practicing sustainable agriculture, diversifying crops, making lives better in their communities, and making it less likely that people will need to leave their villages to try to come to the United States for work. St. Mark's is hoping to send a group of about 7 parishioners to these villages in February (a cooler, dryer time!). Come learn more or reach out to Leslie Allen for more information ([lacaphill\[at\]gmail.com](mailto:lacaphill[at]gmail.com).)

20. Seeking a Volunteer to Help Produce the Daily

[9/13]

We are looking for a computer-savvy volunteer to help produce "The Daily" which is sent to member subscribers on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday. While in the midst of the shut-down, our rector and church leaders committed to sending Daily messages. During my time as a Vestry Member, I volunteered to help in the church office, and was given this gift assignment. It is something I enjoy - gathering artwork and nature photos, matching these to a prayer or inspiring reflection, and creating a listing of the St. Mark's events. The Daily no longer comes out every day, so the time required is about 1 and 1/2 hour, or so, depending on the search process. The work is possible to complete remotely. Let me know if you are interested. Contact: Jan Lipscomb [aa\[at\]stmarks.net](mailto:aa[at]stmarks.net)

21. Newcomer Gatherings

[9/16*]

Newcomer gatherings are an opportunity for new and established members to share a meal, meet people whose paths don't often cross, and discuss what makes this community unique. If you are interested in attending one of these events, please sign up here:

<https://shorturl.at/dZYKr>. The next one is October 25th. Email [terripoxonpearson\[at\]gmail.com](mailto:terripoxonpearson[at]gmail.com) with any questions.

22. Update from Deborah Cunningham

[9/20]

I'm thrilled to report that my recent surgery went incredibly smoothly! It's a relief to have that big hurdle behind me. Now, I'm embarking on the next phase of this adventure: physical therapy. It's going to be a bit of a marathon, but I'm feeling motivated and ready to put in the work to get back to my usual self.

On a more heartfelt note, I've been absolutely touched by the outpouring of love and support from all of you. Seriously, every email, message, and especially the thoughtful gifts have truly brightened my spirits and made this initial recovery period so much easier. Your kindness means the world to me and I can't thank you enough.

I'll be focusing on my recovery over the next little while, but please know I'm really looking forward to reconnecting with everyone and being back in the thick of things as soon as I'm cleared and feeling up to it. Warmly, Deborah [dcwaterlover\[at\]yahoo.com](mailto:dcwaterlover[at]yahoo.com)

23. Supporting Deborah's Recovery

[9/20]

St. Mark's beloved Nursery lead, Deborah, is recovering from recent knee surgery. To support her during her recovery, you can contribute in a few easy ways: Direct Gift Cards: Send e-gift cards for food or groceries directly to her email at [dcwaterlover\[at\]yahoo.com](mailto:dcwaterlover[at]yahoo.com). Group Gift Pool: Venmo any amount to @lc6751, and funds will be pooled into gift cards to send to her. Get Well Notes: Send direct email notes or scanned handwritten cards from kids to [dcwaterlover\[at\]yahoo.com](mailto:dcwaterlover[at]yahoo.com). 28. Note from CYFM Director: Godly Play

[9/27]

The Sunday School Working Group has been meeting over the last year to address the growing number of registrations. We have also had several teachers retire. In January, we decided to use the Godly Play curriculum to supplement Catechesis of the Good Shepherd so that we would have prewritten lesson plans and more accessible training. The response from our new Sunday School teachers has been wonderful. As a result, I have consulted clergy and the board, and I have decided that Godly Play will be our main curriculum. This does not mean that we are totally getting rid of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Many of the lessons are the same. We will still base our approach on the Montessori method. We will use many of the same beautiful, handmade materials. But it does mean you will be hearing the words "Godly Play" more often. Contact [YouthDirector\[at\]StMarks.net](mailto:YouthDirector[at]StMarks.net) with questions.
